Figures of a Changing World Harry Berger, 2015-03-02 Figures of a Changing World offers a dramatic new account of cultural change an account based on the distinction between two familiar rhetorical figures metonymy and metaphor The book treats metonymy as the basic organizing trope of traditional culture and metaphor as the basic organizing trope of modern culture On the one hand metonymies present themselves as analogies that articulate or reaffirm preexisting states of affairs They are guarantors of facticity a term that can be translated or defined as fact like ness On the other hand metaphors challenge the similarity they claim to establish in order to feature departures from preexisting states of affairs On the basis of this distinction the author argues that metaphor and metonymy can be used as instruments both for the large scale interpretation of tensions in cultural change and for the micro interpretation of tensions within particular texts In addressing the functioning of the two terms the author draws upon and critiques the work of Friedrich Nietzsche Roman Jakobson Christian Metz Paul Ricoeur Umberto Eco Edmund Leach and Paul de Man

A Literary Semiotics Approach to the Semantic Universe of George Orwell's Nineteen Eighty-Four Murat Kalelioğlu, 2019-01-03 Semiotics can be considered as a well organized signification journey taken among the pages of the work of art It requires background knowledge related to the field and its analysis tools as well as careful reading practices in the text to reach the projected destination after stopping over in certain stations These stations represent meaning intersections where the meaningful formations are articulated to contribute to the generation of the semantic universe of the text The presentation of such a fictional universe can be complicated because of the nature of the literary work and the language used With regards to Orwell s Nineteen Eighty Four what makes its fiction precious is the masterful acts of the author in both paradigmatic and syntagmatic dimensions This book conducts a semiotic analysis in order to unfold the enigmatic semantic organization of Orwell s Nineteen Eighty Four narrative by penetrating the formative structures at various meaning levels of the text

Semiotics and Visual Communication III Evripides Zantides, 2019-11-12 The chapters in this book consist of selected papers that were presented at the 3rd International Conference and Poster Exhibition on Semiotics and Visual Communication at the Cyprus University of Technology in November 2017 They investigate the theme of the third conference The Semiotics of Branding and look at branding and brand design as endorsing a reputation and inhabiting a status of almost mythical proportion that has triumphed over the past few decades Emerging from its forerunner corporate identity to incorporate advertising consumer lifestyles and attitudes image rights market research customisation global expansion sound and semiotics and the consumer as the brand the word branding currently appears to be bigger than its own umbrella definition From tribal markers such as totems scarifications and tattoos to emblems of power language fashion architectural space insignias of communal groups heraldic devices religious and political symbols national flags and the like a form of branding is at work that responds to the need to determine the presence and interaction of specific groups persons or institutions through shared codes of meaning
