Barnes-Proby,Elizabeth Williams,John Christian,2003-08-08 Restructure the LAPD Training Group to allow the centralization of planning instructor qualification evaluation and retention and more efficient use of resources Serve and Protect Tobias Winright,2020-11-13 This collection of essays on policing and the use of force while written over the course of the last twenty five years remains relevant and timely Although issues in policing and questions about excessive force and brutality have been addressed by criminologists sociologists philosophers and criminal justice ethicists only a handful of theological ethicists treat this pressing matter While the Christian moral tradition has a voluminous record of theological attention to violence and nonviolence war and peace there is a dearth of references to policing And most considerations of criminal justice issues by Christians and their churches concentrate on prison reform or abolition and the death penalty but not policing These essays authored by a theological ethicist possessing professional experience in law enforcement seek to fill this curious gap They offer a framework for moral reasoning concerning the justification for police use of force and the just application of such force and they propose just policing as a model that is consonant with promoting a just peace in communities and society In addition they explore the implications of such an approach for wider international questions about just war terrorism the responsibility to protect and post war justice     The Utilization of Helicopters for Police Air Mobility National Institute of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice. Stress Inside Police Departments Jon Shane,2019-12-06 This book offers researchers police practitioners and policymakers a platform for organizational reform and an understanding of how the police organization creates stress which contributes to reduced officer performance This book based on an in depth study exploring the relationship between perceived organizational stressors and police performance indicates which features of the police organization generate the most stress affecting performance and provides a model of organizational stress that applies to police agencies While much stress research portrays the operation of policing as the greatest source of contention among officers this research shows the ever present rigid hierarchical design of the police agency to be contributing factor of stress that affects performance Ideal for scholars police personnel and policymakers who are interested in how the police organization contributes to lower officer performance this book has implications for policing agencies in the United States and worldwide     Legal Phantoms Susan Bibler Coutin,Jennifer M. Chacón,Stephen Lee,2024-01-30 The 2012 Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals DACA program was supposed to be a stepping stone a policy innovation announced by the White House designed to put pressure on Congress for a broader lasting set of legislative changes Those changes never materialized and the people who hoped to benefit from them have been forced to navigate a tense and contradictory policy landscape ever since haunted by these unfulfilled promises Legal Phantoms tells their story After Congress failed to pass a comprehensive immigration bill in 2013 President Obama pivoted in 2014 to supplementing DACA with a deferred action program known as DAPA for the parents of citizens and lawful permanent residents and a DACA expansion DACA in 2014 But challenges from Republican led states prevented even these programs from going into effect Interviews with would be applicants immigrant rights advocates and government officials reveal how such failed immigration reform efforts continue to affect not only those who had hoped to benefit but their families communities and the country in which they have made an uneasy home Out of the ashes of these lost dreams though people find their own paths forward through uncharted legal territory with creativity and resistance     Police Practices in the Twin Cities United States Commission on Civil Rights.
