Conflict Dr. Murl Edward Gwynn, 2011-07-28 Does Christianity have the power to change lives and keep believers on a righteous path Does Islam have the answers There is a collision of thought and deeds in today's world a clash between faith and finance between peaceful belief and violent fervor In Conflict Christianity's Love vs Islam's Submission the captivating new book from Dr Murl Edward Gwynn deeply explores the contrasting tenets of Christianity and Islam and reveals how the world's changing religious and spiritual realities impact just about everything we hold dear Christians especially those of us in the United States have fallen asleep to the dangers to their faith and allowed material wealth to take precedence in their lives Meanwhile Islam despite its practice of forced submission has become the most populous and fastest growing religion in the world Dr Gwynn's clarion call seeks to awaken us to the vast differences between Christianity and Islam not the least of which are the true identity of Jesus the Son evangelism and salvation and our relationship of oneness with God Now in this hour of greatest need Christian believers must stand firm in true faithful understanding of who they are in the eyes of God His unending love affair with us is our cornerstone and by walking in the light of Jesus acceptance and forgiveness we find true riches that will go with us into eternity we find truth strength and freedom

Humble Confidence Benno van den Toren, Kang-San Tan, 2022-12-20 Benno van den Toren and Kang San Tan provide a global intercultural model of apologetics as crosscultural dialogue and accountable witness Filled with Scriptural examples and real world experiences this is a conversational patient holistic and embodied guide to creating true dialogue in our multicultural multifaith world

Narratives in Conflict Matthew Aaron Bennett, 2019-11-18 Did Jesus die on the cross for our sins as the Gospels describe Or as Muslims often contend was Jesus rescued to heaven in order to avoid the shameful crucifixion that would be unbecoming of a messenger of God This debate has raged for generations and has caused no shortage of frustration among those seeking to explain the central teaching of the Christian faith to those influenced by the Qur'an What this book aims to do is uncover four barriers to understanding the biblical teaching on atonement that likely exist in the minds of our Muslim friends prior to asking about the historical reality of the Christ event

What we will discover is that the Qur'an diverges from the biblical teaching on atonement at the lexical ritual narrative and worldview levels. Each of these points of divergence presents a barrier to communication. Therefore, before arguing with our Muslim friends that Jesus died on the cross, we must provide an answer to the prior question: why would it matter? This book argues that the Letter to the Hebrews provides a particularly helpful biblical starting point for overcoming all four barriers.

Evangelical Christian Responses to Islam Richard McCallum, 2024-02-08. Do Christians and Muslims worship the same God? Who was Muhammad? How does the Israeli-Palestinian conflict affect Christian-Muslim relations? This is a book about Evangelical Christians and how they are answering challenging questions about Islam. Drawing on over 300 texts published by Evangelicals in the first two decades of the twenty-first century, this book explores what the Evangelical micro-public sphere has to say about key issues in Christian-Muslim relations today. From the books they write, the blogs they post, and the videos they make, it is clear that Evangelical Christians profoundly disagree with one another when discussing Islam. Answers to the questions range from seeing Muslims as the enemy posing an existential threat to Christians through to welcoming them as good neighbours or even as close cousins.

The Greatness of God Charles Frank Thompson, 2016-02-08. With each passing day, our world seems to drift further and further away from the God of the Bible, divine creation, and Christian belief. This societal shift toward postmodernism and secularism is not a new development; however, the expanding and intensifying revolt against the biblical God and Christianity traces its roots back to the modern philosophies of the Enlightenment and Romanticism, which have given rise to many divergent views during the past three centuries and become even more extreme in recent postmodernism. The Greatness of God: How God Is the Foundation of All Reality (Truth, Love, Goodness, Beauty, and Purpose) stands as an intellectual counterweight to the prevailing winds of a secular, postmodern world. Author Charles Frank Thompson argues that the consequences of this rejection of God and divine creation have not been benign. He traces the modern revolution in detail and describes its deleterious consequences, including the loss of the ultimate basis for universal truth, knowledge, meaning, and purpose. In The Greatness of God, Thompson explores a wide range of topics, including Christian theology, metaphysical philosophy, and an analysis of modern thought and art. He examines the rich history of Christian poetry, prose, and art and takes a look at recent scientific discoveries that help us understand Christian teachings about God's creation. He concludes with an exploration of the millennium, the eternal kingdom of God, and the spiritual state of America and Europe today.

Religious Encounters in Transcultural Society David William Kim, 2017-11-30. This volume focuses on the various phenomena of religious encounters in a transcultural society where religion or religious traditions play a significant role in a multi-cultural concept. Religious Encounters in Transcultural Society is divided into three parts: Islamic encounters with regional religions, East Asian religious encounters, and alternative religious encounters. This book evokes the fact that religious encounters exist in every transcultural society, even though they often remain hidden behind socio-cultural issues. The situation can be changed, but one culture cannot harmoniously and always contain two or multi beliefs The issue of religious encounters mostly arises in the transnational process of religious globalization

A Pluralistic Portrait of God Lisa Bugayong, 2012-12-28 The years between 800 and 200 B C were vibrating with new religious ideas God had burst onto the scene revealing himself to specific people in various parts of the world creating the beginnings of our modern world religions This book assumes that all these religions were initially produced by God and endeavors to portray God as too vast to be fully contained within only one religion Bugayong hopes to inspire her readers to enlarge their idea of God by perceiving him through the eyes of all the major religions from Judaism to Islam Christianity Hinduism Buddhism and Taoism She explains how each different religion brings a new perspective of the divine that when collected together creates a wonderfully pluralistic portrait of God

Failed God John A. Rush, 2019-04-16 On a 2001 trip to the cathedrals of Europe anthropologist John Rush and his wife entered St Mark's Basilica in Venice and encountered a mosaic depicting Jesus surrounded by mushrooms with an Amanita muscaria cap in his hand Examining the space with new eyes they discovered images of mushrooms and mind altering plants all over the Basilica Intrigued Dr Rush spent seven years researching and reflecting on the profound effects hallucinogens had on the founding of all three major Western religions He concluded that Judaism Christianity and Islam are political constructions evolving out of the use of not only Amanita muscaria but a plethora of mind altering substances Failed God Fractured Myth in a Fragile World re examines the scriptural stories of Judaism Christianity and Islam as told in the Bible and Qur an and reveals them as concocted mythical charters stemming from drug induced romps with the super natural Rush shows how mind altering substances played an instrumental role in the birth and development of Western religions and explains how they contributed to reports of prophetic experiences including angry and disturbing messages from the divine With chapters on Judaism Christianity and Islam Rush fully addresses the effects of mind altering substances on each tradition convincingly discrediting the idea that they stem from actual human interaction with the divine He also shows how an intoxicated and over zealous Apostle Paul corrupted Jesus s simple message of human decency forming an oppressive religious system based on fear In a thought provoking conclusion Rush asks how we can continue to attribute authority to traditions that were so clearly irrationally founded and incompatible with today s world
