Jesus And Nonviolence A Third Way Facets:

Jesus and Nonviolence Walter Wink, 2003-04-01 More than ever Walter Wink believes the Christian tradition of nonviolence is needed as an alternative to the dominant and death dealing powers of our consumerist culture and fractured world In this small book Wink offers a precis of his whole thinking about this issue including the relation of Jesus and his message to politics and nonviolence the history of nonviolent efforts and how nonviolence can win the day when others don't hesitate to resort to violence or terror to achieve their aims

The Shape of Luke's Story Robert C. Tannehill, 2005-11-01 Because of Luke's unique literary achievement in the Gospel of Luke and Acts these two works raise a variety of interesting and important issues for the exegete In this important collection of essays Tannehill demonstrates why he has been in the forefront of Luke Acts research for more than three decades His nuanced approach to the intersection of literary theological and social features in the texts marks these as required reading for any interpreter of the gospels

A Moral Creed for All Christians Daniel C. Maguire, Widely heralded for his bold and prophetic ethical thought Maguire urges that Christianity's real relevance for the renewal of American public life lies not in the myopic morality of the Christian Right nor in any particular program of the Left but in the enduring relevance of Jesus and biblical Christianity His new work builds on his earlier volume The Moral Core of Judaism and Christianity with the benefit of a new generation of social studies of the New Testament and a keen appreciation for the radically changed situation Christians confront today Daniel C Maguire is Professor of Ethics at Marquette University a past president of the Society of Christian Ethics and president of the Religious Consultation on Population Reproductive Health and Ethics A frequent lecturer and media commentator Maguire is author of many influential works in ethics such as Death by Choice 1974 The Moral Choice 1975 The Moral Revolution 1986 Sacred Energies Fortress Press 2000 and Sacred Choices Fortress Press 2001

The Bible in Human Transformation Walter Wink, 2010-01-19 Historical biblical criticism is bankrupt That startling affirmation began The Bible in Human Transformation when it first appeared in 1975 Wink asserts that despite the valuable contributions of the historical critical method we have reached the point where this method is incapable of allowing Scripture to evoke personal and social transformation today More than thirty years later Wink now looks back in a new preface over the more and less humanizing developments in New Testament studies of the last few decades and renews his call for a transforming approach to biblical interpretation

The Only Alternative Alan Nelson, John Malkin, 2008-06-15 The radical message of Jesus is that there is only one alternative to the common method of confronting violence with more violence The Only Alternative Christian Nonviolent Peacemakers in America explores the spiritually active practice of compassionate nonviolence Here is a journey through the lives of seven courageous American peacemakers who have embodied Christian nonviolence and dedicated their lives to addressing the suffering caused by racial discrimination slavery poverty militarism nuclear weapons prisons environmental degradation and the psychology of fear and hatred Here are highlights from the inspirational ideas and actions of Martin Luther King Jr Dorothy Day Thomas Merton Rufus Jones Thomas Kelly Jim Douglass and Kathy Kelly They remind us that to be Christian is to use the power of love to transform spiritual economic and social violence The great turning from violence to nonviolence is the story of Christianity in America There has never been a more urgent time for this revolutionary teaching to be heard understood and lived It is no longer a choice my friends between violence and nonviolence It is either nonviolence or nonexistence Martin Luther King Jr Human beings are now facing the stark choice between survival and destruction amid myriad forms of violence The nonviolent peacemakers within this book can inspire the peacemaker within each of us to cultivate a direct relationship with God and love through contemplation meditation writing and compassionate action based in the life and teachings of Jesus Practicing Discipleship Dr. Nicole L.

Johnson,2009-06-01 Despite a plurality of doctrinal statements on war peace and nonviolence some United Methodists sustain a commitment to nonviolence Through qualitative research Practicing Discipleship draws out lived theologies of nonviolence in order to understand how nonviolent United Methodists define ground and practice nonviolence and to give that voice opportunity to challenge church doctrine and thereby the wider church An analysis of statements from the Book of Disciplines and the Book of Resolutions reveals the plurality of Methodist teachings on moral issues related to war and peace While such plurality is indicative of the inclusive tradition of United Methodism Johnson shows that it also causes confusion thus hindering the vitality and authority of the church s witness This study s qualitative analysis of in depth interviews with twelve nonviolent United Methodists reveals a lived theology rooted in Scripture and theological reflection it points particularly to a christocentrism that posits nonviolence as central to Christ s teachings and example While study participants affirm the tradition of openness in the United Methodist Church they also call for more tangible and extensive support for and education about nonviolence as a faithful option for Christians Through amicable and constructive practical theological dialogue doctrinal plurality and ecclesial openness are affirmed as appropriate and possible only within the context of the church s profound commitment to serious discipleship which includes transformation toward nonviolence Implications of this interaction include developing and adopting a more truthful conception of a nonviolent ethics moving toward broadly conceived Christian formation in nonviolence and fostering ongoing ecclesial dialogue about difficult moral issues of war peace and nonviolence Praying the Psalms, Second Edition Walter Brueggemann,2007-05-01 In this thoroughly revised edition of a classic in spirituality Walter Brueggemann guides the reader into a thoughtful and moving encounter with the Psalms This new edition includes a revised text new notes and new bibliography The movement and meeting of God with us is indeed a speech event in which new humanness is evoked among us Being attentive to language means cultivating the candid imagination to bring our own experience to the Psalms and permitting it to be disciplined by the speech of the Psalms And conversely it means letting the Psalms address us and having that language reshape our sensitivities and fill our minds with new pictures and images that may redirect our lives from Chapter 3 Enigmas and Powers David Seiple,Frederick W. Violence in Scripture Jerome F.D. Creach, 2013-01-01 The Bible frequently depicts God as angry and violent and sometimes depicts human violence as positive or even as commanded by God This forms one of the most vexing problems in approaching Scripture and interpreting the Bible for preaching and teaching today In this volume Creach first examines the theological problems of violence and categorizes the types of violence that appear in scripture He then wrestles with the most important biblical texts on violence to work through specific interpretational issues This new volume in the Interpretation Resources for Use of Scripture in the Church series will help preachers and pastors interpret those difficult texts encouraging them to face violence in the Bible with honesty God Paul E. Capetz, Readers General readers college level college university and seminary students church discussion groups Does the Bible Justify Violence? John Joseph Collins, 2004 In this clarifying essay renowned biblical scholar John Collins delves into the lethal side of the biblical text asking whether the Bible endorses or even foments violence and how its many violent texts may best be understood in today's volatile religious and political context This work is based on his Presidential Address to the Society of Biblical Literature

Technology and Human Becoming Philip Hefner, From a leader in the field of religion and science come these reflections on the role of technology in human life and culture Philip Hefner sees the human spirit at issue in our assessment of and attitude toward technology and the many technological creations that humans spawn Technology he argues tells us much about ourselves especially our innate drive toward exploration of possibilities and poses questions about the final meaning of creating of human cultural evolution and even the being of God International Review of Biblical Studies, Volume 49 (2002-2003) Bernhard Lang, 2004-02-01 Formerly known by its subtitle Internationale Zeitschriftenschau für Bibelwissenschaft und Grenzgebiete the International Review of Biblical Studies has served the scholarly community ever since its inception in the early 1950's Each annual volume includes approximately 2 000 abstracts and summaries of articles and books that deal with the Bible and related literature including the Dead Sea Scrolls Pseudepigrapha Non canonical
