Jesus A New Understanding Of Gods Son:

Jesus Joseph F. Girzone, 2012 Joseph Girzone combines gospel stories with experiences from his own life and from people around the world to create a portrait of Jesus present in every moment of our lives Inventing Christic Jesuses, Volume 1 Charles A. Wilson, 2017-11-09 Inventing Christic Jesuses is the first comprehensive proposal for how revisionist theology can deploy historical Jesus research in a methodologically sophisticated way Rejecting positions that insulate theology from Jesus research the proposal sets out warrants and rules for a quested Christology in dialogue with an analysis of the conduct of historians of Jesus from the period of the Third Quest c 1980 2010 The volume Method analyzes for theology the methods and values of historical research on Jesus It argues that the methodic construction of historical images of Jesus in conversation with sources is simultaneously a retrojective activity of value production First in defining the terms of the inquiry Wilson locates a middle ground between hostility to questing and a too ready application of historical results to Christology He then identifies rules and warrants for the deployment of Jesus research in theology and reconstructs the notion of the retrojection of value in the production of a historical Jesus The volume ends with a case study of retrojective Jesus production an analysis and assessment of the new notion that Jesus is a sage in the tradition of wisdom A

Grammatical and Exegetical Study of New Testament Verbs of Transference Paul Danove, 2009-08-18 This study continues the adaptation of the method of Case Frame analysis for the investigation of the Greek text of the New Testament Case Frame analysis distinguishes the words of a language into two categories predicators words that require completion by other words for their correct grammatical use and non predicators words that do not require such completion and provides rigorous procedures for describing the syntactic semantic and lexical requirements that predicators impose on the words that complete their meaning The inclusion of semantic function and feature descriptions in Case Frame analysis permits the development of a new genre of lexicon that specifies not only syntactic and lexical information as do traditional dictionaries but detailed semantic information The resulting Case Frame lexicon entries are both more compact and more nuanced than traditional lexicon entries Danove conducts an exhaustive Case Frame analysis of the ditransitive verbs of transference in the New Testament He uses this analysis to develop a set of descriptive guidelines for interpreting and translating the various usages of ditransitive verbs of transference and applies these rules in exegetical studies of the text of the New Testament to generate a Case Frame lexicon of the verbs of transference in the New Testament This study will distinguish the requirements of the 127 New Testament verbs of transference according to four syntactic functions twelve semantic functions and 22 lexical realizations This will permit a rigorous investigation of all occurrences of verbal complements with the same syntactic semantic and lexical attributes The study also will consider the influence of one semantic feature an inherent quality of words that has implications for their lexical realization and of the intrusion of four grammatical constructions inherent structuring templates of grammar that govern syntactic semantic and lexical attributes and modify meaning on each category of complements with the same syntactic semantic and lexical description This will produce a rigorous description of meaning that becomes the basis for Danove s contributions to the linguistic study of biblical Greek and to the exegesis of biblical texts

SAMPLE TEXT OF TRANSLATION JOHN S PREDICTING A MORE POWERFUL BAPTIZER THAN HE Mark 1 1 8 1 1 3 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ God's Son according as it's written in Isaiah the prophet Behold I'm sending my messenger before your face ahead of you who'll pave your way the road you'll travel the messenger who is the voice of one crying out in the wilderness Prepare the way of the Lord Make his paths straight Pastors Sunday school teachers small group leaders and laypeople will welcome Gundry's non technical explanations and clarifications And Bible students at all levels will appreciate his sparkling interpretations of the NT Scriptures A trustworthy guide for anybody wanting to delve deeper into God's Word

SAMPLE TEXT OF COMMENTS Gospel means good news Jews would associate this good news with Isaiah 52 7 Non Jews would think of the good news of an emperor's accession to power birthday visit to a city military victory or bringing of prosperity to the empire But Mark's good news has to do with the salvation and victory brought by Jesus over evil in all its demonic and physical forms The gospel of Jesus Christ therefore means the gospel about Jesus Christ and refers to a proclaimed message the voice of one crying out not a book though because books like Mark's contain that proclaimed message the term came to refer to those books in the capitalized form of Gospels to distinguish them from the message kept uncapitalized as gospel

God, the World, and Hope Harald Hegstad, 2018-10-31 Who is Jesus Christ What does it mean to say that we are created in the image of God What does salvation mean What is the meaning of baptism What characterizes the Christian fellowship What hope does a Christian faith give for the future These are only a few of the questions that this textbook on dogmatics takes up This book begins the discussion of the various topics by looking at what the Bible has to say Hegstad then examines how the church's doctrine has developed over the course of history and discusses how the Christian faith can best be formulated today This book understands the Christian faith as an answer to universal existential questions that challenge all religions and worldviews Dogmatics is understood here as the expression of a Christian interpretation of life Hegstad himself belongs to the Lutheran church tradition but his perspective is consistently ecumenical This introduction to dogmatics will interest not only students but everyone who is looking for a deeper insight into the Christian faith Abingdon New Testament Commentaries: Mark Prof. C. Clifton Black, 2011-09-01 Mark's genius lies not in telling a story about Jesus but in creating conditions under which the reader may experience the peculiar quality of God's good news The Evangelist hurries one along breathlessly immediately making sure that the reader lurches with the characters into one pothole after another What is this new teaching that consorts with the flagrantly sinful turning the pious homicidal intimates into strangers and mustard seeds into the greatest of all shrubs Jesus' closest adherents the Twelve are among the most muddled Who can blame them They ask for an obscure parable's interpretation and receive an answer even more confounding They are told to feed thousands with next to nothing Their boat almost capsizes while their teacher sleeps As they oar in rough waters the teacher strides the waves intending to bypass them Putting the reader in the same boat Mark structures conversations with Jesus that make little sense if any The Twelve are craven stupid self-serving and disobedient meet the average Christian Besides their hearts were hardened Who hardens hearts God Should not God's Messiah lift the burdens of those following him What kind of Christ heads to a cross handing his disciples another for themselves Do you not yet understand from the Introduction Romans (Baker Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament) Thomas R. Schreiner, 1998-12-01 A fresh analysis of the Book of Romans for scholars pastors and students that blends scholarly depth with readability Salvation in the New Testament Jan G. van der Watt, 2005-11-01 Salvation in the New Testament offers an analysis of the soteriological perspectives and language of the different books of the New Testament Special attention is given to the imagery used in expressing soteriological ideas Salvation deals with becoming part of the people of God In Salvation in the New Testament special attention is given to the nature and power of the salvific language used in the New Testament to express the dynamics of salvation Individual articles on the different books of the New Testament highlight the diverse perspectives offered in these documents The emphasis especially falls on the different images and metaphors which were used to express the event and moment of salvation rather than on the results ethics or behaviour of salvation An overview of the different perspectives on soteriology in the New Testament offers the opportunity to compare similarities and differences in concepts and expressions It also illustrates the dynamic interaction between historical situations and salvific language and expression New Testament Foundations, Vol. 1 Ralph P. Martin, 1999-11-19 The merits of this volume are many The author writes in a very readable and intelligible style making the book clear and easy to understand His evaluations are objective carefully weighing both strengths and weaknesses and doing so from the standpoint of liturgical principle rather than dogmatic assertion Despite the scholarly approach there is a practical emphasis not found in many introductions New Testament Foundations represents scholarship at its best The Theological Educator The New Apologetics Ian S. Markham, 2020-03-27 Skepticism about Christianity abounds Building on the work of Charles Taylor Ian S Markham argues that contemporary skepticism is more a mood than an intellectual repudiation of Christian theology In its attempt to accommodate science the church too often opts for deistic responses that take the spiritual out of the material Against this response Markham argues for a rich imaginative account of the world that is grounded in Christian revelation and affirms spiritual causation angels and the reality of the saints It is a clarion call for the Western church to learn from the church in the Global South and create a rich theology that lives up to its professed values as a genuinely inclusive church
