Hausman, 2014-02-04

Mother's Milk Bernice L. Hausman, 2014-02-04 Mother s Milk examines why nursing a baby is an ideologically charged experience in contemporary culture Drawing upon medical studies feminist scholarship anthropological literature and an intimate knowledge of breastfeeding itself Bernice Hausman demonstrates what is at stake in mothers infant feeding choices economically socially and in terms of women s rights Breastfeeding controversies she argues reveal social tensions around the meaning of women s bodies the authority of science and the value of maternity in American culture A provocative and multi faceted work Mother s Milk will be of interest to anyone concerned with the politics of women's embodiment      Mass Hysteria Rebecca Kukla, 2005-10-04 In Mass Hysteria Rebecca Kukla examines the present day medical and cultural practices surrounding pregnancy new motherhood and infant feeding In the late eighteenth century the configuration of the maternal body underwent a radical transformation and the two maternal bodies that emerged out of this transformation still govern our imagination and rituals surrounding pregnancy and lactation Exploring the history and the current life of these two maternal bodies within medical institutions popular culture and politics Kukla offers a critical assessment of the lived repercussions of these ideological figures and practices for contemporary women's and infants health and well being      Nighttime Breastfeeding Cecília Tomori, 2025-01-01 New parents in the United States are caught between responding to infant needs for closeness and breastfeeding and cultural and medical norms that emphasize solitary sleep This anthropological investigation shows that nighttime closeness and breastfeeding are the evolutionary and cross cultural norm but recent sociocultural shifts produced novel ideals of separation The book uncovers how breastfeeding parents rework these cultural ideals In this new edition the author describes shifting medical guidance that increasingly supports breastfeeding yet remains largely separated from infant sleep guidance The volume also provides a path towards more equitable approaches to nighttime infant care grounded in reproductive justice

Make Room for Daddy Judith Walzer Leavitt, 2009-06-21 Using fathers first hand accounts from letters journals and personal interviews along with hospital records and medical literature Judith Walzer Leavitt offers a new perspective on the changing role of expectant fathers from the 1940s to the 1980s She shows how as men moved first from the hospital waiting room to the labor room in the 1960s and then on to the delivery and birthing rooms in the 1970s and 1980s they became progressively more involved in the birth experience and their influence over events expanded With careful attention to power and privilege Leavitt charts not only the increasing involvement of fathers but also medical inequalities the impact of race and class and the evolution of hospital policies Illustrated with more than seventy images from TV films and magazines this book provides important new insights into childbirth in modern America even as it reminds readers of their own experiences

Medicine's Moving Pictures Leslie J. Reagan, Nancy Tomes, Paula A. Treichler, 2007 This groundbreaking book argues that health and medical media with their unique goals and production values constitute a rich cultural and historical archive and deserve greater scholarly attention Original essays by leading media scholars and historians of medicine demonstrate that Americans throughout the twentieth century have learned about health disease medicine and the human body from movies Heroic doctors and patients fighting dread diseases have thrilled and moved audiences everywhere amid changing media formats medicine's moving pictures continue to educate entertain and help us understand the body's journey through life Perennially popular health and medical media are also complex texts reflecting many interests and constituencies including notably the U S medical profession which has often sought if not always successfully to influence content circulation and meaning Medicine's Moving Pictures makes clear that health and medical media representations are more than illustrations shows their power to shape health perceptions practices and policies and identifies their social cultural and historical contexts Contributors Lisa Cartwright Vanessa Northington Gamble Rachel Gans Boriskin Valerie Hartouni Susan E Lederer John Parascandola Martin S Pernick Leslie J Reagan Naomi Rogers Nancy Tomes Paula A Treichler Joseph Turow Leslie J Reagan is an associate professor at the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign Nancy Tomes is a professor at Stony Brook University Paula A Treichler is a professor at the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign
