Louis C Tiffany And The Art Of Devotion:

Louis C. Tiffany and the Art of Devotion Patricia Pongracz, 2012 The first volume to explore the vast assortment of church decorations and memorials produced by the Tiffany Studios Louis Comfort Tiffany David A. Hanks, 2013-09-10 A seminal artist of the Gilded Age Louis Comfort Tiffany is the best known and most widely collected figure in late nineteenth and early twentieth century American decorative arts The splendid objects from the Driehaus Collection installed as the inaugural exhibition of the Richard H Driehaus Museum showcase a wide variety of Tiffany's work in an architectural setting of the period Newly commissioned photographs by John Faier highlight the subtle detail and rich coloring of each object revealing why Tiffany is so revered as a designer Essays by Richard H Driehaus and David A Hanks explore the collector's vision and Tiffany Studios's largely unknown legacy in Chicago Vividly colored enriched with ornament and boldly scaled the book provides an intimate look into the artistry and craftsmanship of Tiffany and is a unique opportunity for collectors and enthusiasts alike to experience the objects as never before seen The Art Work of Louis C. Tiffany, 1914 Gustave Doré and the Modern Biblical Imagination Sarah C. Schaefer, 2021 Gustave Doré and the Modern Biblical Imagination explores the role of biblical imagery in modernity through the lens of Gustave Doré 1832-83 whose work is among the most reproduced and adapted scriptural imagery in the history of Judeo Christianity First published in France in late 1865 Doré's Bible illustrations received widespread critical acclaim among both religious and lay audiences and the next several decades saw unprecedented dissemination of the images on an international scale In 1868 the Doré Gallery opened in London featuring monumental religious paintings that drew 2.5 million visitors over the course of a quarter century when the gallery's holdings travelled to the United States in 1892 exhibitions at venues like the Art Institute of Chicago drew record crowds The United States saw the most creative appropriations of Doré's images among a plethora of media from prayer cards and magic lantern slides to massive stained glass windows and the spectacular epic films of Cecil B DeMille This book repositions biblical imagery at the center of modernity an era that has often been defined through a process of secularization and argues that Doré's biblical imagery negotiated the challenges of visualizing the Bible for modern audiences in both sacred and secular contexts A set of texts whose veracity and authority were under unprecedented scrutiny in this period the Bible was at the center of a range of historical theological and cultural debates Gustave Doré is at the nexus of these narratives as his work established the most pervasive visual language for biblical imagery in the past two and a half centuries and constitutes the means by which the Bible has persistently been translated visually Religion in Museums Gretchen Buggeln, Crispin Paine, S. Brent Plate, 2017-02-23 Bringing together scholars and practitioners from North America Europe Russia and Australia this pioneering volume provides a global survey of how museums address religion and charts a course for future research and interpretation Contributors from a variety of disciplines and institutions explore the work of museums from many perspectives including cultural studies religious studies and visual and material culture Most museums throughout the world whether art archaeology anthropology or history museums include religious objects and an increasing number are beginning to address religion as a major category of human identity With rising museum attendance and the increasingly complex role of religion in social and geopolitical realities this work of stewardship and interpretation is urgent and important Religion in Museums is divided into six sections museum buildings reception objects collecting and research interpretation of objects and exhibitions and the representation of religion in different types of museums Topics covered include repatriation conservation architectural design exhibition heritage missionary collections curation collections and display and the visitor s experience Case studies provide comprehensive coverage and range from museums devoted specifically to the diversity of religious traditions such as the State Museum of the History of Religion in St Petersburg to exhibitions centered on religion at secular museums such as Hajj Journey to the Heart of Islam at the British Museum
