Handbook Of Intercultural Training Issues In Training Methodology Volume :

Handbook of Intercultural Training Dan Landis, Richard W. Brislin, 2013-10-22 Handbook of Intercultural Training Volume II Issues in Training Methodology is a major attempt to describe critique and summarize the major known ways to provide cross cultural training. The collection of essays discusses the stresses of intercultural encounter as well as how to reduce these. This volume is divided in two parts. The first part discusses context factors including stress factors in intercultural relations and aspects of organization effectiveness. A cross cultural experience from the perspective of a program manager is presented as well as a situational analysis and designing a translator based training program where alternative designs are forwarded for trainers to use effectively in multicultural and multilingual environments. The second part presents different methods of training. Learning from sojourners and from individuals from various cultures results in different frameworks for interpreting cross cultural interactions. Consultants, advisors and experts may find themselves performing outside and beyond their home ground and social groups so training programs pertaining to their particular situation need to be addressed more profoundly. The training program in race relations by the U S Department of Defense is reviewed and the effects of stereotyping people are discussed and considered as other factors in the preparation of training programs. English is then examined as a tool for intercultural communication where aspects of intercultural training should be integrated. This book is suitable for overseas workers, foreign students, foreign technical advisers, diplomats, immigrants and many others who are going to live and work and be exposed to other cultures. Handbook of Intercultural Training Dan Landis, Richard W. Brislin, 2013-10-22 Handbook of Intercultural Training Volume III Area Studies in Intercultural Training deals with information about the countries in which people will be living and working where trainers want new and better country specific information that can be incorporated into their programs. This volume contains two parts wherein the first part deals with training in educational institutions where existing programs are examined. An intercultural competence in bilingual teacher training programs is presented and the intercultural communications skills imparted to trainers, teachers are examined. Also addressed are methods to facilitate education on cross cultural matters to college level students. To put cross cultural relations in perspective the topic of American and foreign students in the United States in a university context is discussed and its implications for theory, future research and applied intercultural programming are further examined. Part II is concerned with area studies and covers Sub Sahara Africa, Islamic countries such as Iran, Americans in Australia, Oceania, India, Japan, Canada and the American retiree abroad. The inclusion of this section shows the types of content that can be included in the preparation of training programs. Trainers and cross cultural workers, foreign workers, diplomats, foreign students, immigrants and even transients working and living in a different culture will find this volume a wealthy source of information. Handbook of Intercultural Training: Issues in Training Methodology Dan Landis, 2013 Handbook of Intercultural Training: Issues in training methodology Dan Landis, Richard W.
