Preaching Words John S. McClure, 2007-01-02 John McClure's Preaching Words highlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching offering short explanations of these ideas what scholars of preaching are saying about them and how they can help in today's preaching Topics range from elements of the sermon introduction body and conclusion to aspects of delivery types of preaching in different Christian traditions and theories of preaching

Year D Timothy Matthew Slemmons, 2012-05-04 Although one often hears of the need to preach the whole counsel of God few resources have seriously and specifically attempted to assist the preacher and planner of worship to do just that until now Year D makes the case for the need and promise of supplementing the Revised Common Lectionary with a fourth year of lections and arranges many previously excluded biblical texts in an orderly one year preaching plan It fills a need widely voiced by preachers that the lectionary effectively limits and censors the functional canon of Scripture Destined to serve as a staple source of significant revitalization in mainline preaching and worship Year D banks on the agency of Word and Spirit to renew the church as few practical proposals have done in the last twenty years lending new focus and impetus for exploring the Bible's forgotten

riches A timely and urgently needed return to the sources Year D represents a fresh appropriation of neglected and marginalized texts for preaching worship education and devotion and thus constitutes a substantive scriptural attempt to address what Walter Brueggemann has called the current preaching emergency Hunger for the Word Larry Hollar,2004 Hunger for the Word provides weekly reflections on the lectionary readings for Year B from the standpoint of a concern for hunger and justice Drawing on the insights and stories of pastors professors and other theologically grounded people who are active in anti hunger advocacy through Bread for the World Hunger for the Word explores the scriptural witness with an openness to seeing how God s Word can nourish us in the struggle to feed the hungry The Living Church ,1994-07
