Honoring The Generations Learning With Asian North American Congregations:

Honoring the Generations M. Sydney Park, 2012 Proceedings of a conference held in May 2009 at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Deerfield Ill Doing Asian American Theology Daniel D. Lee, 2022-11-29 With insights from interpersonal neurobiology and trauma theory Daniel D Lee s theological methodology and vocabulary which incorporates the need for personal integration and communal journey offers a process of integration and reconciliation for Asian American theologies in service of Asian American communities of every kind Opening the Field of Practical Theology Kathleen A. Cahalan, Gordon S. Mikoski, 2014-04-10 Opening the Field of Practical Theology introduces students to practical theology through an examination of fifteen different approaches ranging from feminist to liberationist Roman Catholic to evangelical Asian American to Latino a After an introduction to the field of practical theology and its broad range of practice today the book features chapters written by leading experts in the discipline Each chapter has an identical structure to facilitate comparison covering historical context key features and figures norms and sources of authority theory practice contexts interdisciplinary considerations areas of current and future research and suggested readings Opening the Field of Practical Theology is an ideal introduction to the field highlighting the diverse ways practical theology is engaged today English Ministry Crisis in Chinese Canadian Churches Matthew Richard Sheldon Todd, 2015-03-26 In this book Dr Matthew Todd looks into the anecdotal reporting of high numbers of Canadian born Chinese leaving Western Canadian Chinese churches what is termed the silent exodus Some of the fastest growing Canadian churches are Chinese yet reportedly the highest dropout rates are among Chinese and Asian church adult ministries This book recommends solutions towards the retention of Canadian born Chinese adults in Chinese bicultural churches through empowerment To address retention the key factors that contribute to a silent exodus are established through qualitative research with participants of diverse church affiliations Todd examines various models and proposed solutions the Chinese church has used to retain its English speaking congregants and gives attention to a theological basis for being inclusive in mission initiatives and for empowerment through passing the leadership baton Todd makes some recommendations on the new wave of an emerging congregational model that requires negotiation with Chinese church leadership to give power away to English ministry leaders and congregations He anticipates that this will permit transformational leadership practices that contribute to shalom community transformation and lasting congregations All Ages Becoming Valerie M Grissom, 2023-10-24 We are in this together all ages practicing all ages becoming God s people Often intergenerational initiatives are seen as the next new church trend or another programming tool for church growth and revitalization Ultimately though intergenerational practice is at the core of what it means for us to be the body of Christ God intends for all ages to participate in faith formation together we are formed in our practice of intergenerationality as we participate in the formation of becoming God s people All Ages Becoming brings theologians practitioners and ministry leaders representing diverse denominations generations cultures and geographical locations together to help us explore this adventure of intergenerational Christian practice As you consider intergenerational practice in your own faith community each chapter provides Theology in Practice sections with questions designed to help your community reflect discuss discover experiment reinvent redesign and continue in your community of practice

Developing a Transformational English Ministry in Chinese Churches Matthew R. S. Todd, 2016-07-25 If you want to discuss development and transitions of a growing English ministry you've come to the right book If recruiting and training youth workers or development of worship discipleship and mentoring is your concern you'll find ideas here Many Chinese churches lack a long vision for their English ministry rooted in the Great commission The author explores maturing English congregational models the Silent Exodus and why partnering is imperative A celebration is given to the Chinese churches multicultural potential and challenge to reconcile the CBC hybrid culture This volume has one goal healthier churches to the glory of God CCDA Theological Journal, 2012 Edition Chris Jehle, 2013-08-28 The Theological Journal is designed to enable our practitioners to capably integrate theological concepts into their practice The articles are written by CCDA members and will challenge us to go deeper theologically while giving us language that will allow us to dialogue outside of The Academy Theological reflection and engagement among practitioners and with our neighbors can often be strange bedfellows but this should not be the case Double Particularity Daniel D. Lee, 2017-05-01 Double Particularity is a constructive proposal for theological methodology addressing the Asian American context using the theology of Karl Barth It focuses primarily on employing Barth's theology to develop a methodology for engaging the Asian American context This methodological focus means that it is an integrative and synthetic work bringing seemingly disparate thoughts and concepts together Here the Asian American context serves as an important case study With the center of worldwide Christianity moving to the global South and even as American Christianity becomes more reflective of immigrant populations the theological need for a deeper engagement with context is more urgent than ever Karl Barth particularly his thought on election Christology and reconciliation offers much wisdom and insight for the churches of the majority world and for these ethnic churches even though he is often seen as just a figure in the Western historical tradition Hence this study is a contribution to the development of a connection between Barth and contextual theology to the stimulation and enrichment of both

Tapestry of Grace Benjamin C. Shin, Sheryl Takagi Silzer, 2016-09-13 Why do the first generation still act like that Why can't we try some new ideas Why are the second generation so lazy Why are the second generation so disrespectful Isn't it a shame how the church is split between the two generations These and many more questions reflect the tangled conflicts within the Asian American church Cultural differences have led to many misunderstandings and conflicts Conflicts have created bitterness and churches have split apart How can these tangled threads be rewoven into a beautiful tapestry of God's grace What would it take for the Asian American church to reflect God's grace In Tapestry of Grace Dr Benjamin C Shin and Dr Sheryl Takagi Silzer apply their years of study and teaching to explain how the cultural complexities that occur between the different generations of the Asian American church can be untangled Taking lessons from their own spiritual journeys they show how each generation can experience the amazing grace of the Gospel Finding Our Voice Matthew D. Kim, Daniel L. Wong, 2020-06-17 No one preaches in a cultural vacuum The message of what God has done in Christ is good news to all but to have the greatest impact on its hearers or even to be understood at all it must be culturally contextualized Finding Our Voice speaks clearly to an issue that has largely been ignored preaching to Asian North American ANA contexts In addition to reworking hermeneutics theology and homiletics for these overlooked contexts Kim and Wong include examples of culturally specific sermons and instructive questions for contextualizing one's own sermons Finding Our Voice is essential reading for all who preach and teach in ANA contexts But by examining this kind of contextualization in action all who preach in their own unique contexts will benefit from this approach The Identity and Mission of the Korean American Church Enoch Jinsik Kim, Sebastian Kim, 2024 In this book scholars of Korean American Protestant churches address key challenges concerning sociocultural and theological formation of identity and mission The discussions are arranged in three areas identity formation missional and spiritual formation and inter cultural formation People of Faith, People of Jeong (Qing) Nam Soon Song, Ben C. H. Kuo, Dong-Ha Kim, In Kee Kim, 2020-07-02 This book People of Faith People of Jeong Qing seeks to reveal and understand the current state and the future prospective of Asian Canadian immigrant churches ACIC including Chinese Taiwanese and Korean churches Starting with a brief chronicle of ACIC history this book shares the journeys and the stories of current members of lay and clergy from various ACIC The chapters attempt to explain the influence and the impact that jeong and faith have on these churches to envisage the future of ACIC and to draw relevant implications for the betterment of these churches going into the future This book reflects the real voices and sentiments of the first and the second generation members of these ethnic Asian immigrant churches in the Greater Toronto Area GTA It is original authentic comprehensive and inclusive in its perspectives the first book of its kind on Asian immigrant churches in Canada The book will serve as an inspiration and a practical guide for immigrant churches in cross cultural and cross generational transitions It offers laypeople church leaders and clergies a critical reference as they navigate through the future of churches in North America and beyond ChristianityNext Winter 2018: Negotiating Difference Young Lee Hertig, 2018-01-18 An interdisciplinary scholarly exploration of Asian North American Christianity ChristianityNext is a journal of Innovative Space for Asian American Christianity ISAAC Beyond Multiculturalism Charles A. Cook, Lorajoy Tira-Dimangondayao, Lauren Umbach, 2024-10-29 The Canadian socio cultural landscape is undergoing constant transformation due to immigration Communities of faith have traditionally embraced this diversity through a stance of hospitality framed by a modern idea of multiculturalism However the modern idea of multiculturalism often falls short of fully integrating newcomers into the family life and leadership of a congregation As diverse cultural expressions of world Christianity continue to blossom throughout Canada both new and established Canadians must explore relational approaches to transcend historical cultural racial and linguistic divides The goal is to foster genuine community and forge deeper covenantal unity allowing the transformative nature of King Jesus to be evident to the world Beyond Multiculturalism advocates for Christians to showcase tangible examples of Jesus Kingdom culture in which humility compassion and self giving love are valued Authored by Canadian scholars and practitioners representing twelve ethnicities and ten denominations the chapters delve into various theological sociological and pragmatic aspects that churches should address These considerations aim to guide churches into deeper conversation enabling them to align with the evolving dynamics of God s work in Canada and worldwide Expect Great Things, Attempt Great Things Allen Yeh,Chris Chun,2013-09-04

William Carey often dubbed The Father of Modern Missions and Adoniram Judson America s first intercontinental missionary were pioneers whose missions overlapped in chronology geography and purpose However rarely are they both featured in the same volume or compared and contrasted Here we have unique material by some of the world s leading experts on these two giants of missionary history with perspectives on these men in ways never seen before Especially relevant to this current age of World Christianity are the perspectives from India and Burma the lands which received these men for their missionary enterprise Hope and Community Veli-Matti Karkkainen,2017-10-23 The culmination of K rkk inen s multivolume magnum opus This fifth and final volume of Veli Matti K rkk inen s ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian eschatology and ecclesiology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism In Part One of the book K rkk inen discusses eschatology in the contexts of world faiths and natural sciences including physical cosmological and neuroscientific theories In Part Two on ecclesiology he adopts a deeply ecumenical approach His proposal for greater Christian unity includes the various dimensions of the church s missional existence and a robust dialogical witness to other faith communities Forgive Us Mae Elise Cannon,Lisa Sharon Harper,Troy Jackson,Soong-Chan Rah,2014-09-23 Many people have become angry and frustrated with organized religion and evangelical Christianity in particular Too often the church has proven to be a source of pain rather than a place of hope Forgive Us acknowledges the legitimacy of much of the anger toward the church In truth Christianity in America has significant brokenness in its history that demands recognition and repentance Only by this path can the church move forward with its message of forgiveness reconciliation and peace Forgive Us is thus a call to confession From Psalm 51 to the teachings of Jesus to the prayers of Nehemiah confession is the proper biblical response when God s people have injured others and turned their backs on God s ways In the book of Nehemiah the author confesses not only his own sins but also the sins of his ancestors The history of the American church demands a Nehemiah style confession both for our deeds and the deeds of those who came before us In each chapter of Forgive Us two pastors who are also academically trained historians provide accurate and compelling histories of some of the American church s greatest shortcomings Theologian Soong Chan Rah and justice leader Lisa Sharon

Harper then share theological reflections along with appropriate words of confession and repentance Passionate and purposeful Forgive Us will challenge evangelical readers and issue a heart felt request to the surrounding culture for forgiveness and a new beginning Stay in the City Mark R. Gornik, Maria Liu Wong, 2017 We live in an urban age For the first time in human history most of the world s people live in cities It is thus vital say Mark Gornik and Maria Liu Wong for Christians to think constructively about how to live out their faith in an urban setting In Stay in the City Gornik and Liu Wong show and tell what is happening in the urban church Writing from their experience living and working in New York City they invite readers everywhere to join together in creating a more flourishing urban world for all c From publisher s description

A Hybrid World Sadiri Joy Tira, Juliet Lee Uytanlet, 2020-05-15 Linking Blending Intermixing with Divine Purpose People are on the move As individuals and people groups are constantly migrating the unreached have become part of our communities This reality provides local Christ followers with the challenge and opportunity of navigating both the global diaspora and mixed ethnicities A Hybrid World is the product of a global consultation of church and mission leaders who discussed the implications of hybridity in the mission of God The contributors draw from their collective experiences and perspectives explore emerging concepts and initiatives and ground them in authoritative Scripture for application to the challenges that hybridity presents to global missions This book honestly wrestles with the challenges of ethnic hybridity and ultimately encourages the global church to celebrate the opportunities that our sovereign and loving God provides for the world s scattered people to be gathered to himself How Am I Going to Grow Up? Enoch Wong, 2022-01-04 Second generation Chinese Canadian evangelicals inhabit a complex liminal space positioned between the world of their parents and broader Canadian society In this study Dr Enoch Wong explores the silent exodus of these Canadian born Chinese from their parents churches tracing their journeys to negotiate their cultural ethnic and faith identities for themselves Utilizing both sociology of religion and leadership studies Wong s research engages Robert Greenleaf s concept of foresight in servant leadership to examine the role of church leaders in mediating or failing to mediate these transitions for children raised in immigrant churches This multi case inquiry offers insight into the concerns of Canadian born Chinese evangelicals and the cultural and generational conflicts that prompt them to search for new communities capable of understanding their identities and supporting their yearnings whether inside or outside of the church
