Dutch Landscape Painting of the Seventeenth Century Wolfgang Stechow, 1968 Acta Universitatis Upsaliensis ,1951

Landscape and Religion from Van Eyck to Rembrandt Boudewijn Bakker, 2017-07-05 Offering a corrective to the common scholarly characterization of seventeenth century Dutch landscape painting as modern realistic and secularized Boudewijn Bakker here explores the long history and purpose of landscape in Netherlandish painting In Bakker s view early Netherlandish as well as seventeenth century Dutch painting can be understood only in the context of the intellectual climate of the day Concentrating on landscape painting as the careful depiction of the visible world Bakker s analysis takes in the thought of figures seldom consulted by traditional art historians such as the fifteenth century philosopher Dionysius the Carthusian the sixteenth century religious reformer John Calvin the geographer Abraham Ortelius and the seventeenth century poet Constantijn Huygens Probing their conception of nature as the first Book of God and art as its representation Bakker identifies a world view that has its roots in the traditional Christian perceptions of God and creation Landscape and Religion from Van Eyck to Rembrandt imposes a new layer of interpretation on the richly varied landscapes of the great masters In so doing it adds a new dimension to the insights offered by modern art historical research Further Bakker s explorations of early modern art and literature provide essential background for any student of European intellectual history
