Hopecasting Mark Oestreicher,2015-02-23 Mark Oestreicher shares the story of his trip into the desert literally and figuratively after a disruptive life event From there he helps us understand the elusive nature of hope where it comes from how we come upon it how we lose sight of it how we come back to it and how we hang on to it against all hope Us versus Us Andrew Marin,2016-06-01 Would you believe that 86 percent of LGBT people from the proud marcher at the Pride Parade to the quiet closeted teen spent their childhood in church More than half of them left those religious communities as adults three out of four would be happy to come back For decades now we have found our selves caught up in a culture war us versus them Good news there is no them Our culture war has been a civil war Us versus Us And there is a path toward meaningful peace Andrew Marin brings the startling findings of his largest ever scientific survey of the religious history practices and beliefs of the LGBT community Marin s findings offer clear direction for both sides of a long cultural battle to meet in the middle sacrificing neither conviction nor integrity as they rediscover the things they have in common and the hope found in Christ alone Original groundbreaking research into the religious lives and beliefs of the LGBT community

Saying Is Believing Amanda Hontz Drury,2015-03-06 What if our view of testimony is all wrong Integrating sociological analysis and theological reflection Amanda Drury presents testimony as not merely something that describes what happened in the past but as an essential practice for Christian spiritual formation especially for adolescents in the process of developing their identity A Mission That Matters Jen Bradbury,2018-08-21 Mission trips have become a staple in youth ministries across the United States The problem is many mission trips remain disconnected from the rest of a congregation s ministry As a result it s often difficult to integrate students experiences on the field with their lives back home In this book veteran youth worker and author Jen Bradbury will lay out a philosophy for mission trips that does just that Connects what happens on the field with students lives at home To do so she ll draw upon Scripture as well as stories from the 15 years she s spent leading mission trips herself both domestically and internationally Regardless of how few or how many mission trips a youth worker has led Jen s words will leave them feeling inspired and equipped to create a comprehensive missions strategy that has the chance to leave a lasting impact on teens congregations and the world India Now and In transition Atul K. Leading Without Power Mark Oestreicher, 2017-01-31 Hierarchical coercive leadership should have no place in the church. But if we move away from those unbiblical and ineffective forms of power based leadership we still need to lead. In Leading Without Power Mark Oestreicher explores in very pragmatic ways what it might look like for us to replace power based leadership modalities with other approaches. Leading Without Power unpacks nine metaphorical job titles with stories and examples of what it looks like to embody these mindsets and practices: Competency Facilitator, Culture Evangelist, Mission Curator, Storytelling Host, Champion of Hope, Uniqueness DJ, Contextualization Czar, Trust Guard, Collaboration Guide. Read it alone or collectively with a leadership team, volunteer staff or both looking for ways that different team members can utilize their passions and gifts to build a robust and flourishing culture of people development and values based leadership.
