Horatio Nelson Triumph Tragik Seehelden:

Nelson's Band of Brothers Captain Peter Hore, 2015-05-20 While there is a perennial interest in the Royal Navy during the Napoleonic wars and in Nelson himself there is no reference work that chronicles all the captains of his ships their social origins their characters and the achievements in their lives beyond their service under Nelson This new book researched and written by distinguished historians descendants of some of Nelson's officers and members of the 1805 Club presents concise biographies of those officers who fought with Nelson in his three great battles with superb colour illustration throughout Nelson first gave the name of band of brothers to the officers who had commanded ships of his fleet at the battle of the Nile 1798 This new volume will include 100 officers ranging from lieutenants in command of gunboats at the battle of Copenhagen 1801 through captains of line of battle ships at the Nile and at Trafalgar 1805 to admirals in command of squadrons in his fleets Of real significance are the specially commissioned photographs of all the monuments and memorials to Nelson's captains descriptions with transcriptions of epitaphs and clear directions to enable the readers to find them Part travel book part biography and moving testimony to Nelson's faithful captains Nelson's band of Brothers presents the opportunity to rediscover 100 local heroes

The Trafalgar Chronicle: New Series 2 Peter Hore, 2017-11-30 The Trafalgar Chronicle the yearbook of The 1805 Club has established itself as a prime source of information and the publication of choice for new research about the Georgian navy sometimes also loosely called Nelson's navy Successive editors have widened the scope to include all sailing navies of the period while a recurring theme is the Trafalgar campaign and the epic battle of 21 October 1805 Contributors to The Trafalgar Chronicle have included leading experts in their field whether they are Professor John Hattendorf from the US Naval War College in Newport RI Professor Andrew Lambert from Kings College London or antiquarians and enthusiasts Each volume is themed and this new edition looks in detail at the Royal Marines and the United States Marine Corps The RM were founded in 1664 but their royal title was only granted to them on 29 April 1802 The USMC traces its roots to the Continental Marines of the American Revolutionary War or American War of Independence when two battalions were formed by Captain Samuel Nicholas after a resolution of the Second Continental Congress on 10 November 1775 Both corps have similar duties then and now and in this volume there are newly researched articles about their common roles in the age of sail The main piece has been written by Major General Julian Thompson and there are leading articles by American and British scholars including Dr Charles P Neimeyer the Director and Chief of Marine Corps History at Marine Corps University Quantico Virginia There is also a unique autobiography by a marine who took part in the battle of Trafalgar the War of 1812 the bombardment of Algiers and the First Ashanti War Other issues are investigated including Victory's true colours in which Andrew Baines Head of Historic Ships at the National Museum of the Royal Navy describes the research which went into revealing how Nelson's flagship looked in 1805 Scholars and students experts and enthusiasts fascinated by the era of the sailing navy will be absorbed by this handsomely illustrated journal
