Aidan Nichols, O.P., 2020 In this brief guide an internationally acclaimed theologian and Dominican priest explains the approach to Catholic theology that he has worked out during his nearly forty years of publishing books and articles in the service of the Church He looks at the nature of theology its status as a science that is also a wisdom its intrinsic principles and methods its sources and its subdivisions He discusses the qualities the budding theologian must make his own if theology is to be authentically Catholic and assist rather than hinder the Church's mission In a time of considerable confusion in the intellectual life of the Church arising not only from professors but from hierarchs The Theologian's Enterprise offers comprehensive yet concise counsel to those setting out in the study of their faith perhaps for the first time Freedom and Necessity in Modern Trinitarian Theology Brandon Gallaher, 2016-09-15 Freedom and Necessity in Modern Trinitarian Theology examines the tension between God and the world through a constructive reading of the Trinitarian theologies and Christologies of Sergii Bulgakov 1871-1944 Karl Barth 1886-1968 and Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905-1988 It focuses on what is called the problematic of divine freedom and necessity and the response of the writers Problematic refers to God being simultaneously radically free and utterly bound to creation God did not need to create and redeem the world in Christ It is a contingent free gift Yet on the other side of a dialectic he also has eternally determined himself to be God as Jesus Christ He must create and redeem the world to be God as he has so determined In this way the world is given a certain free necessity by him because if there were no world then there would be no Christ A spectrum of different concepts of freedom and necessity and a theological ideal of a balance between the same are outlined and then used to illumine the writers and to articulate a constructive response to the problematic Brandon Gallaher shows that the classical Christian understanding of God having a non necessary relationship to the world and divine freedom being a sheer assertion of God s will must be completely rethought Gallaher proposes a Trinitarian Christocentric and cruciform vision of divine freedom God is free as eternally self giving self emptying and self receiving love The work concludes with a contemporary theology of divine freedom founded on divine election Death and Afterlife Terence Nichols,2010-03-01 Many people fear dying and are uncertain about life after death In this engaging book a Catholic theologian addresses perennial human questions about death and what lies beyond making a Christian case for an afterlife with God Nichols begins by examining views of death and the afterlife in Scripture and the Christian tradition He takes up scientific and philosophical challenges to the afterlife and considers what we can learn about it from near death experiences Nichols then addresses topics such as the soul bodily resurrection salvation heaven hell and purgatory Finally he addresses the important issue of preparing for death and dying well Enacting Atonement Roy McDaniel,2025-11-04

Discover the story of salvation in Christ through Levitical rituals Atonement lies at the heart of the Christian faith In Christ s work of atonement we are reconciled to God enabled to draw near to him and can see his glory Through studying the Levitical burnt offering Roy McDaniel takes readers on a deep exploration of Leviticus 1 1 9 in this thought provoking volume part of the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture series from IVP Academic Using elements of narrative analysis like setting plot and hero McDaniel shows how the Levitical burnt offering is a ritual recapitulation of the narrative of Israel s election and deliverance as depicted in Genesis and Exodus and how in doing so it proclaims the atoning work of Christ At the heart of this work lies the logic of atonement present in the Levitical burnt offering an idea that contributes to the doctrine of atonement by demonstrating how Christ s incarnate sacrifice is rooted in his eternal identity as God the Son In Enacting Atonement Roy McDaniel Provides a coherent account of atonement centered on the eternal identity of the Son Shows how Levitical sacrifice can inform the church s doctrine of atonement by modeling a careful theological exegesis of Leviticus and Explores questions about the meaning of sacrifice and its relationship to the being and attributes of God Whether you re a scholar student pastor theologian or a layperson seeking deeper understanding Enacting Atonement invites you to uncover the rich tapestry of God s redemptive narrative in the Levitical ritual Beyond Male and Female? Sam Ashton,2023-09-21 In this incisive work Sam Ashton provides a compelling consistent and erudite argument for a foundational approach to the matter of sexual difference drawing on biblical and doctrinal material and using resources in their original languages He tracks and traces the sexed body as it moves from creation through the fall to redemption now and final consummation not yet In doing so Ashton presents what is perhaps the strongest case that can be made for male and female He created them Each chapter privileges biblical exegesis drawing upon figures in church history notably Augustine and Aquinas as and when they illumine Scripture By doing so the book considers the difficulty presented to sexual dimorphism by the phenomenon of intersex Ashton seeks to develop an understanding that is generous inclusive and affirming so he works carefully through the writings of Thatcher Song and Cornwall in a way that invites engagement and dialogue With the complete divine drama in view the book offers synthetic judgments about what remains essential for the structure of the sexed body as it travels through history and what may be accidental to the sexed body's direction within a particular theo-dramatic act Ashton concludes by considering ways to transition from dogmatic judgments about intersexuality to the moral pastoral care of concrete intersex individuals briefly thinking about the complex matter of marriage
