Bernheimer, Ronny Vollandt, 2023-12-19 Textual practices in pre modern societies cover a great range of representations from the literary to the pictorial Among the most intriguing are synopses and lists While lists provide a complete enumeration of ideas people events or terms synopses juxtapose one against the other To understand how they were planned produced and consumed is to gain insight into the practices of what one can call management of knowledge in a time before our own
The present volume is the product of two workshops held in 2019 and 2021 as part of the research focus Textual Practices in the Pre Modern World Texts and Ideas between Aksum Constantinople and Baghdad which was generously supported and funded by the Centre for Advanced Study CAS at Ludwig Maximilians Universit t LMU Munich Aiming to understand how synopses and lists function in the literatures of the great intellectual traditions of late antiquity the ancient Near East ancient philosophy and the three monotheistic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam the volume offers a historical and transcultural perspective on synopses and lists highlighting the centrality of these textual practices to allow storing retrieving selecting and organising this knowledge Both make deliberate yet not always explicit choices as to what is included and excluded thereby creating lasting hierarchies and canons Forms of List-Making: Epistemic, Literary, and Visual Enumeration Roman Alexander Barton, Julia Böckling, Sarah Link, Anne Rüggeheimer, 2022-01-18 This open access book attempts to show that an examination of the list s formal features has the potential to produce genuine insights into the production of knowledge the poetics of literature and the composition of visual art Following a conceptual introduction the twelve single authored chapters place the list in a variety of well researched contexts including ancient Roman historiography medieval painting Enlightenment periodicals nineteenth century botanical geography American Beat poetry and contemporary photobooks With its interdisciplinary approach this book is a unique contribution to an emerging field dedicated to the study of lists Scribal Culture in Ancient Egypt Niv Allon, Hana Navratilova, 2023-12-21 This Element seeks to characterize the scribal culture in ancient Egypt through its textual acts which were of prime importance in this culture writing list making drawing and copying Drawing upon texts material objects and archeological evidence this Element will touch upon main themes at the heart of the study of this culture while building on current discussions in literacy and literary as well as social history Theory and Classification of Material Text Cultures Nikolaus Dietrich, Ludger Lieb, Nele Schneider, 2024-10-07 The final volume in the series synthesizes the research conducted by the Heidelberg Collaborative Research Center 933 SFB 933 Systematized into six topic areas reflecting on writing layout and text image memory and the archive material transformation sanctification and rule and administration the CRC scholars summarize the knowledge gained from 12 years of interdisciplinary work into 35 theses on a theory of material text cultures

Classification from Antiquity to Modern Times Tanja Pommerening, Walter Bisang, 2017-09-11 The volume presents phenomena of classification and categorisation in ancient and modern cultures and provides an overview of how cultural practices and cognitive systems interact when individuals or larger groups conceptually organize their world Scientists of antiquity studies anthropologists linguists etc will find methods to reconstruct early concepts of men and nature from a synchronic and diachronic comparative perspective Translating Writings of Early Scholars in the Ancient Near

East, Egypt, Greece and Rome Annette Imhausen, Tanja Pommerening, 2016-11-21 Ancient cultures have left written evidence of a variety of scientific texts But how can should they be translated Is it possible to use modern concepts and terminology in their translation and which consequences result from this practice Scholars of various disciplines discuss the practice of translating ancient scientific texts and present examples of these texts and their translations One Who Loves

Knowledge Betsy Bryan, Christina DiCerbo, Marina Escolano-Poveda, Mark Smith, Jill S. Waller, 2022-12-01 The thirty nine articles in this volume One Who Loves Knowledge have been contributed by colleagues students friends and family in honor of Richard Jasnow professor of Egyptology at Johns Hopkins University Despite his claiming to be just a demoticist Richard Jasnow s research interests and specialties are broad spanning religious and historical topics along with new editions of demotic texts including most particularly the Book of Thoth A number of the authors demonstrate their appreciation for Jasnow s contributions to the understanding of this difficult text The volume also includes other studies on literature Ptolemaic history and even the god Thoth himself and features detailed images and abundant hieroglyphic hieratic demotic Coptic and Greek texts Naming and Mapping the Gods in the Ancient Mediterranean Thomas Galoppin, Elodie

Guillon, Max Luaces, Asuman Lätzer-Lasar, Sylvain Lebreton, Fabio Porzia, Jörg Rüpke, Emiliano Rubens Urciuoli, Corinne Bonnet, 2022-12-31 Ancient religions are definitely complex systems of gods which resist our understanding Divine names provide fundamental keys to gain access to the multiples ways gods were conceived characterized and organized Among the names given to the gods many of them refer to spaces cities landscapes sanctuaries houses cosmic elements They reflect mental maps which need to be explored in order to gain new knowledge on both the structure of the pantheons and the human agency in the cultic dimension By considering the intersection between naming and mapping this book opens up new perspectives on how tradition and innovation appropriation and creation play a role in the making of polytheistic and monotheistic religions Far from being confined to sanctuaries in fact gods dwell in human environments in multiple ways

They move into imaginary spaces and explore the cosmos By proposing a new and interdisciplinary angle of approach which involves texts images spatial and archaeological data this book sheds light on ritual practices and representations of gods in the whole Mediterranean from Italy to Mesopotamia from Greece to North Africa and Egypt Names and spaces enable to better define differentiate and connect gods The Temple of Ramesses II in Abydos Ogden Goelet, Sameh

Iskander, 2022-04-12 Of all the enormous monuments throughout Egypt and Nubia that Ramesses II the Great ca 1279 1212 BCE left behind his temple at Abydos built early in his reign stands as one of his most elegant with its simple architectural layout and dramatic and graceful painted relief scenes Though best known for its dramatic reliefs depicting the battle of Kadesh the temple also offers a wealth of information about religious and social life in ancient Egypt It reflects for example the strenuous efforts of the early Ramessides to reestablish the Osiris cult in Egypt and particularly at Abydos in the aftermath of the Amarna period Building on the comprehensive photographic and epigraphic documentation of the temple presented in The Temple of Ramesses II at Abydos volumes 1 Wall Scenes and 2 Pillars Niches and Miscellanea volume 3 Architectural and Inscriptional Features offers a detailed analysis of the overall architectural layout and decorative program of the temple and its symbolism This discussion approaches the religious history of the site through its archaeology its inscriptions both planned and secondary graffiti and its situation in the complex religious landscape of Abydos Of particular interest are the temple's role as a staging point for the great Osiris Festival and its procession among the most important of all ritual events in the Egyptian religious calendar during the Ramesside period the promotion of an active unbound form of Osiris and the evidence for important cult activities that took place on the rooftop of the temple the presence of which is documented today by the staircase that accessed it from Court B Looking beyond the Text, 2025-02-13 Looking beyond the Text investigates the production transmission and reception of texts and manuscripts in ancient Egypt focusing on the complex practices and culture of the scribes who made them Drawing on theories and methods from other disciplines such as literary studies neuroscience and book history the authors discuss the physical practices of writing social contexts of texts and manuscripts and scribes themselves The papers examine a wide range of manuscripts including letters medical compendia poems religious corpora and other text genres written on varied media in different time periods The resulting collection offers new perspectives on the key role of scribes in ancient Egypt and models more contextualized and materially informed modes of philology Writing, Violence, and the Military Niv Allon, 2019-08-15 Writing Violence and the Military takes representations of reading and writing in Eighteenth Dynasty Egypt ca 1550 1295 BCE as its point of departure asking how patrons of art conceptualized literacy and how in turn they positioned themselves with respect to it Exploring statuary and tomb art through the prism of self representation and group formation it makes three claims Firstly that the elite of this period held a variety of notions regarding literacy among which violence and memory are most prominent Secondly that among the Eighteenth Dynasty elite literacy found its strongest advocates among men whose careers brought them to engage with the military either as military officials or as civil administrators who accompanied the army beyond the borders of Egypt. Finally, that Haremhab the General in Chief who later ascended the throne voiced unique views regarding literacy that arose from his career as an elite military official and thus from his social world. Consequently, images of reading and writing allow us to study literacy with regard to those who commissioned them and to consider these patrons' roles in changing conceptualizations. Throughout their different formulations, these representations call for a discussion on literacy in relation to self-representation and to art's role in society. They also invite us to reconsider our own approach to literacy and its significance in ancient times.

Interdisciplinary Explorations of Postmortem Interaction Estella Weiss-Krejci, Sebastian Becker, Philip Schwyzer, 2022-06-23. In the present as in the past, the dead have been deployed to promote visions of identity as well as ostensibly wider human values. Through a series of case studies from ancient Egypt through prehistoric, historic, and present-day Europe, this book discusses what is constant and what is locally and historically specific in our ways of interacting with the remains of the dead, their objects, and monuments. Postmortem interaction encompasses not only funerary rituals and intergenerational engagement with forebears but also concerns encounters with the dead who died centuries and millennia ago. Drawing from a variety of disciplines such as archaeology, bioarchaeology, literary studies, ancient Egyptian philology, and sociocultural anthropology, this volume provides an interdisciplinary account of the ways in which the dead are able to transcend temporal distances and engender social relationships. Until quite recently, literary sciences and archaeology were generally regarded as incommensurable in their aims, methodologies, and source material. Although archaeologists and literary critics have been increasingly willing to borrow concepts and terminology from the other discipline, this book is one example of a genuinely collaborative endeavor. This is an open access book.

En détail – Philologie und Archäologie im Diskurs Marc Brose, Peter Dils, Franziska Naether, Lutz Popko, Dietrich Raue, 2019-09-02. Der Band versammelt rund 70 Beiträge zu aktuellen ägyptologischen Forschungen und Fragestellungen, charakteristisch für diese ist, dass sie nur in einem engen Austausch von archäologischen Befunden und philologischen Quellen gewinnbringend entwickelt und weitergedacht werden können. Dabei werden Beispiele aus nahezu allen Epochen der ägyptischen Geschichte sowie zahlreichen Regionen des Landes am Nil berücksichtigt.

Recycling for Death Kathlyn M. Cooney, 2024-08-27. A meticulous study of the social, economic, and religious significance of coffin reuse and development during the Ramesside and early Third Intermediate periods, illustrated with over 900 images. Funerary datasets are the chief source of social history in Egyptology, and the numerous tombs, coffins, Books of the Dead, and mummies of the Twentieth and Twenty-first Dynasties have not been fully utilized as social documents, mostly because the data of this time period is scattered and difficult to synthesize. This culmination of fifteen years of coffin study analyzes coffins and other funerary equipment of elites from the Nineteenth to the Twenty-second Dynasties to provide essential windows into social strategies and adaptations employed during the Bronze Age collapse and subsequent Iron Age reconsolidation. Many Twentieth to Twenty-second Dynasty coffins show evidence of reuse from other older coffins, as well as obvious marks where gilding or inlay have been removed Innovative vignettes painted onto coffin surfaces reflect new religious strategies and coping mechanisms within this time of crisis while advances in mummification techniques reveal an Egyptian anxiety about long term burial without coffins as a new style of stuffed and painted mummy was developed for the wealthy It was in the context of necropolis insecurity economic crisis and group burial in reused and unpainted chambers that a complex polychrome coffin style emerged The first part of this book focuses on the theory and evidence of coffin reuse contextualized within the social collapse that characterized the Twentieth and Twenty first Dynasties The second part presents photo essays of annotated visual data for over sixty Egyptian coffins from the so called Royal Caches most of them from the Egyptian Museum in Cairo Illustrated throughout with high quality images the line drawings and color and black and white photographs are ideal for careful study especially evidenced in the digital edition where pages can be enlarged for close examination
