Spirit of the English Magazines ,1822 Thank Heaven Leslie Caron,2009-11-25 One of the best loved stars of classic American cinema tells all in this wry funny and poignant memoir Leslie Caron is one of the most cherished and admired international film stars of our time She made her film debut with Gene Kelly in the classic MGM musical An American in Paris created one of the most enduring roles in American musicals as Gigi danced with Fred Astaire in Daddy Long Legs and starred with Cary Grant in Father Goose In Thank Heaven an homage to Thank Heaven for Little Girls the song Maurice Chevalier sings about her in Gigi Caron shares her remarkable life story From her childhood with her American mother and French father in occupied France to her early success as a young ballerina to her meeting Gene Kelly and her years in Hollywood to her love affairs including a very funny and very public one with Warren Beatty and motherhood to her alcoholism and depression and finally her recovery and continuing success in film and television Caron offers an illuminating account of her career Thank Heaven is filled with reminiscences of MGM at the end of its Golden Era of the great stars with whom Caron worked and of her own struggles as an actress This is a sharp unsentimental and moving memoir for everyone who loves classic American movies New Ritual Society Gianpiero Vincenzo,2018-07-27 Consumerism has established itself as a dominant lifestyle but the reasons behind this are often unclear This study revisits a large amount of diverse research and argues that consumerism is a powerful ritual machine that can make up for the modern lack of values with new symbols and rituals Consumerism made its claim between the end of the 19th and the beginning of the 20th century when the traditional symbolic world had ended and a new one had not yet emerged Slowly but progressively consumerism begun to develop new symbolic forms and new social rituals becoming the basis for new mimetic behaviours As nationalism has progressively declined consumerism has permeated the entire social fabric Supermarkets and shopping malls must be interpreted in the light of their ritual significance as temples and holy cities of a new symbolic order In the consumeristic era many people are led to think and imagine in consumer terms to identify themselves through consumption rituals The impact of consumerism on culture from literature to art should not be underestimated Many artists have tried to develop their aesthetics by triggering a dialectical or openly critical confrontation with consumerism This book also takes into account the development of violence and the effects of consumerism on childhood and new generations The book contains a preface by the German anthropologist Christoph Wulf and the images illustrating the text are by Belgian artist Michel Couturier
