Making Crosses A Creative Connection To God Active Prayer Series:

Making Crosses Ellen Morris Prewitt, 2009-03-01 Making Crosses introduces a new spiritual practice for those who want to experience God beyond day to day prayers More than analytical thinking the practice of making crosses offers a way of prayer where understanding comes from doing This new prayer form can take as little or as much time as you have or want to commit You bring your own creativity to bear and make a representation of the cross of Christ Each cross is unique but they all share some deep truths and Ellen Prewitt invites all to explore the ways in which making crosses can deepen a life lived for Christ As she explains I've found that anyone can make a cross and by making crosses we are better able to understand what God needs for us to understand about ourselves our church or whatever may be working in our lives To make a cross is to pray in a new way but it's not as simple as old fashioned petitionary prayer making crosses is a way for God to pray through you

A Homemade Year Jerusalem Jackson Greer, 2013-03-01 Let A Homemade Year inspire you to discover new and creative ways to experience the rhythm of God's story in your home with your family and friends through fun colorful crafts party ideas and recipes Divided into seasons A Homemade Year is filled with celebrations that you already observe and some you may never have heard of May this book be a jumping off point for creating joy and lasting memories through the church year Praise for A Homemade Year This energetic book is as useful as it is comforting Christian formation begins in the home and A Homemade Year gives us ways and means of accomplishing that with joy holiness and a healthy portion of just plain old fashioned fun Phyllis Tickle author of The Divine Hours I began reading A Homemade Year one afternoon when I had no fewer than a thousand things going on in my house Almost immediately I was drawn into Jerusalem Greer's beautiful writing and became fascinated with her journey through an entire year of liturgical celebrations some of which Advent Epiphany I celebrate in my own home but some of which I never knew about before Two hours later I was still reading happily resigned to letting my plans for the day slide Jerusalem so clearly conveys the significance and beauty of liturgical tradition and her celebration specific recipes and crafts are sweet and meaningful while at the same time completely doable for everyone This book is an absolute treasure I want to share it with everyone I know Ree Drummond 1 New York Times Bestselling author of The Pioneer Woman Cooks Like many moms I'm longing to create a sense of rhythm and tradition in our lives and our home and this sweet book gives many imaginative practical places to start Shauna Niequist author of Bittersweet and Cold Tangerines With waffle crumbs and bacon drippings and brown sugar crystals Jerusalem Jackson Greer leaves a Hansel and Gretel like path to follow as we travel through the seasons of the liturgical year A Homemade Year gives families a wonderful sensory way to share and experience the Christian story at home I was charmed and moved by this book Sybil MacBeth author of Praying in Color and Praying in Color for Kids In a world that struggles to slow down and stay focused on what's really important A Homemade Year gives you new vision to do just that I can't wait to get started myself Courtney Walsh New York Times bestselling author of A Sweethaven Summer and Scrapbooking Your Faith Bead by Bead Suzanne Henley, 2018-03-13 A creative way to pray across faith traditions made new for all who seek a more intimate experience with God Lushly illustrated Divided into three parts the first part of Bead by Bead takes a historical look at prayer beads across centuries and cultures Part Two showcases opportunities for heart mind body ways to pray the beads without the beads including activities that are whimsical ordinary and spirited to inspire readers to create their own The book concludes with an invitation to contemplate one's own life as a rosary Readers are encouraged to draw their own set of prayer beads and with discernment and prayer label each bead They then can keep and literally hold their life in their hands in prayer gratitude and awe Abba, Give Me a Word L. Roger Owens, 2012-03-01 I challenge you to get through a chapter of this book without a desire for God being struck in your soul Roger Owens wears his brilliance lightly and loves words tenderly and lavishly in these pages He is ferociously gifted and fast becoming one of the abbots to whom the reading church often turns for a word from the Lord Jason Byassee senior pastor of Boone United Methodist Church and Fellow in Theology Leadership at Duke Divinity School With a style and warmth of presentation that will remind readers of Henri Nouwen's most popular work Abba Give Me a Word interweaves the author's personal stories of struggle and transformation with reflections on the history and purpose of spiritual direction The result is a wise introduction to an ancient art and practice of soul care directed at Christians of all backgrounds Writing to God Rachel G.

Hackenberg, 2011-03-09 Writing to God is a Lenten devotional tool providing forty seven insightful prayers for personal reflection and an equal number of scripturally based writing prompts to guide readers writers in their own praying Each prayer draws its readers into a moment of meditation even as it sets an example for the accompanying prompt Paired together these prayers and writing prompts offer daily devotions for the Lenten season including Sundays and Holy Week

Knit One, Purl a Prayer Peggy Rosenthal, 2011-10-01 This new spirituality of knitting addresses topics such as knitting as a popular pastime what knitting does for our minds bodies and spirits and how knitting helps people reduce stress overcome loss form friendships and connect with a community Most important the author shows readers and crafters how knitting can become prayer Make Love Your Aim Eugenia Price, 2021-04-27 Everyone today is an expert on love is Dr Allan Fromme's cryptic reflection on our current mood With a sense of human adventure Eugenia Price suggests in Make Love Your Aim that anyone can be an expert on love if he will dare to discover for himself the love God offers We have so sentimentalized our concept of love that it bears no resemblance to the original Miss Price writes We have taken the word of romantic novels and motion pictures and TV and perfume and men above the Word of God The Bible declares that God is love How closely does your concept of love resemble the love of God We tend to judge the quality of love according to the way it makes the loved one feel But to judge love by feeling is our big error and the point at which we turn aside from God's original concept Make Love Your Aim is a companion piece to the author's last book The Wider Place which was described by some readers as a controversial challenge to try the inner freedom God grants to anyone who want it enough to assume the responsibilities that come with it Freedom and love are two sides of the same coin And we can only understand them enough to practice them if we know the way God defines them How does He do this In Jesus Christ the final yet continuing revelation of God's true intentions toward all of us Those who are familiar with Eugenia Price's books will recognize this as a recurring theme Make Love Your Aim develops it with imagination and versatility Jesus said If the Son shall make you free you shall be free indeed But He was offering to wave no magic wand over our heads so that we could do as we pleased He also said This is my commandment That you love one another as I have loved you His is the love of the Cross without self defense without self pity and totally free

Cross Examinations Marit Trelstad, In today's theological landscape the significance of the cross has become strongly affirmed and radically questioned This exciting volume gathers theologians and historians who have thought through these critical and constructive issues Do traditional understandings of the cross valorize suffering or violence Are the older soteriological models which see redemption as a kind of ransom or debt satisfaction fitting for the contemporary worldview Do they produce a piety that acquiesces in needless suffering or does the cross precisely meet the massive suffering and injustice of today's world Following an expert introduction to the issues and options by editor Marit Trelstad each author addresses the Christian symbol of the cross in the context of current theological sociological political or environmental issues

Theology of the Martyrdom of Alfred Delp examines one martyr's rejection of the titan's perversion of heroism and sacrifice. The life of Delp, a Jesuit priest, embodied a Christian theology of martyrdom articulated over against a virile fundamentalism that rejected divine sovereignty. As Peter Nguyen S.J. shows, Delp opposed Ernst Jünger's active nihilism by revealing a more authentic and no less demanding existence, one that came not from acquiring self-mastery but rather from an emptying out of self, an indifference, an unselfing through a radical dependence upon God. International Sunday School Evangel, 1906
