Searching for a New German Identity Theresa M. Ganter, 2008 Theresa M. Ganter investigates Heiner Müller's use of the Geschichtsdrama as a tool in his search for post-World War II and post-reunification German identity in Germany. Tod in Berlin 1956, 1971, and Germania 3 Gespenster am Toten Mann 1996 respectively. "All Power to the Imagination!" Sabine Von Dirke, 2016-07 All Power to the Imagination is a history of the counterculture's immensely influential role in West German cultural and political life. Sabine von Dirke opens with an examination of nascent countercultural movements in West Germany during the 1950s. She then moves to a nuanced account of the student movement of the 1960s, describing its adaptation of the theories of Marcuse, Adorno, and Benjamin, then recounting its attack on bourgeois notions of the autonomy of art and culture. She next examines the subsequent development of a radical aesthetic and the effects of left-wing terrorism on Germany's political climate. Later chapters focus on the Tageszeitung, the ecology movement, and the rise of the Green Party. Von Dirke concludes by asking whether the evolution that this book traces from Marxist-influenced critiques of culture and society to more diverse, less doctrinaire left-wing positions represents progress or a betrayal of radical ideals. An ambitious study of the German left, this book is an important contribution to our understanding of postwar European history.
