Ezra and Nehemiah David J. Shepherd, Christopher J. H. Wright, 2018-01-04 Two features especially distinguish the Two Horizons Old Testament Commentary series theological exegesis and theological reflection Both of these features are fully realized in this THOTC volume on Ezra and Nehemiah by David J Shepherd and Christopher J H Wright Following an introduction and concise verse by verse commentary on both books Shepherd and Wright highlight key ways in which these Old Testament texts continue to speak to us today They closely examine what Ezra and Nehemiah tell us about God and the people of Israel reflect practically on leadership and engage critically with those portions of the text such as Ezra s dissolution of the Judeans marriages with foreigners that present special problems for contemporary readers Offering deep theological insight throughout this volume will prove essential for students pastors and other Christian leaders seeking to engage in theological interpretation of Scripture

The New Negro Henry Louis Gates Jr., Gene Andrew Jarrett, 2021-06-08 When African American intellectuals announced the birth of the New Negro around the turn of the twentieth century they were attempting through a bold act of renaming to change the way blacks were depicted and perceived in America By challenging stereotypes of the Old Negro and declaring that the New Negro was capable of high achievement black writers tried to revolutionize how whites viewed blacks and how blacks viewed themselves Nothing less than a strategy to re create the public face of the race the New Negro became a dominant figure of racial uplift between Reconstruction and World War II as well as a central idea of the Harlem or New Negro Renaissance Edited by Henry Louis Gates Jr and Gene Andrew Jarrett The New Negro collects more than one hundred canonical and lesser known essays published between 1892 and 1938 that examine the issues of race and representation in African American culture These readings by writers including W E B Du Bois Paul Laurence Dunbar Alain Locke Carl Van Vechten Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright discuss the trope of the New Negro and the milieu in which this figure existed from almost every conceivable angle Political essays are joined by essays on African American fiction
