The Right to Employee Inventions in Patent Law Kazuhide Odaki, 2018-10-18 Although employers are required to pay compensation for employee inventions under the laws in many countries existing legal literature has never critically examined whether such compensation actually gives employee inventors an incentive to invent as the legislature intends This book addresses the issue through reference to recent large scale surveys on the motivation of employee inventors in Europe the United States and Japan and studies in social psychology and econometrics arguing that the compensation is unlikely to boost the motivation productivity and creativity of employee inventors and thereby encourage the creation of inventions It also discusses the ownership of inventions made by university researchers giving due consideration to the need to ensure open science and their academic freedom Challenging popular assumptions this book provides a solution to a critical issue by arguing that compensation for employee inventions should not be made mandatory regardless of jurisdiction because there is no legitimate reason to require employers to pay it This means that patent law does not need to give employee inventors an incentive to invent separately from the incentive to innovate which is already given to employers

The Hidden Barriers and Enablers of Team-Based Ideation Linda Suzanne Folk, 2023-01-01 This book explores elements of team dynamics and interactions that block or enable effective ideation The author investigates interpersonal dynamics inhibitors of collaboration and boosters of ideation efficiency that govern the ability of a team to generate new and valuable ideas Where it is widely accepted that teams are a necessity in the creative process this book highlights the inconsistency in terms of quality and reliability of creative output when looking at teams Why do some teams struggle and others succeed in innovating This book offers a valuable resource for those interested in the qualities and interventions that can impact the ideation potential of a team

The Co-creative University Łukasz Mamica, 2021-06-29 The co creative university has become the main driver of social and economic development stimulating internal students and academics and external creativity companies and institutional environment as well as cooperation in various areas e g applied graduation theses research projects lifelong learning Intended as a contribution to a better understanding of how universities create value in numerous areas this book discusses the determinants of creativity and ways of stimulating it with a special focus on approaches and practical solutions relevant to teaching Examples include problem oriented student theses which represent a successful combination of creativity with practical knowledge Based on the findings of international surveys of students the author offers an in depth analysis of the differences between what they expect from universities and the degree to which their expectations are met Comparing students opinions with those of employees of international corporations working graduates permitted the author to test the actual utility of selected aspects of university education Regrettably both groups of respondents gave low ratings to support for developing creativity which should serve as a warning sign and inform future reforms at this level of education This book is primarily targeted to those involved in education policy making and socio economic development It provides a rich source of information for university managers on how to better fulfil their missions based on the idea of co creativity It also suggests how to improve the effectiveness of research and education in order to ensure that both can better respond to current development challenges
