Above the Fray Shai M. Dromi, 2020-01-24 From Lake Chad to Iraq nongovernmental organizations NGOs provide relief around the globe and their scope is growing every year Policy makers and activists often assume that humanitarian aid is best provided by these organizations which are generally seen as impartial and neutral In Above the Fray Shai M Dromi investigates why the international community overwhelmingly trusts humanitarian NGOs by looking at the historical development of their culture With a particular focus on the Red Cross Dromi reveals that NGOs arose because of the efforts of orthodox Calvinists demonstrating for the first time the origins of the unusual moral culture that has supported NGOs for the past 150 years Drawing on archival research Dromi traces the genesis of the Red Cross to a Calvinist movement working in mid nineteenth century Geneva He shows how global humanitarian policies emerged from the Red Cross founding members faith that an international volunteer program not beholden to the state was the only ethical way to provide relief to victims of armed conflict By illustrating how Calvinism shaped the humanitarian field Dromi argues for the key role belief systems play in establishing social fields and institutions Ultimately Dromi shows the immeasurable social good that NGOs have achieved but also points to their limitations and suggests that alternative models of humanitarian relief need to be considered
