Forest and Stream, 1887 A Contested Terrain AnneMarie Brosnan, 2025-03-04 A testament to the resilience and determination of Black North Carolinians to achieve educational equality This book examines the educational experiences of Black North Carolinians during the American Civil War and Reconstruction period 1861-1877 By highlighting the collaborative efforts that led to the growing network of schools for the formerly enslaved people it argues that schooling the Freedpeople was a contested terrain fraught with conflicting visions of Black freedom and the role education should play Although Black men and women emerged as the driving force behind the educational endeavors of this period their work was facilitated by Northern aid and missionary societies the federally mandated Freedmen's Bureau and over 1,400 teachers from various regional and racial backgrounds Yet the educational landscape was far from uniform and the individuals and organizations involved had their distinct visions regarding the nature and purpose of Freedpeople's education Through the use of qualitative and quantitative research methods this book offers new insights into the reasons why Black and white Northerners and Southerners elected to become teachers By examining their diverse motivations and experiences it argues that attitudes toward Freedpeople s education were complex and fluid defying neat characterization Despite mounting obstacles and opposition to their work Black North Carolinians unrelenting quest for education ultimately gave rise to free public schooling for both races the professionalization of Black teachers and an extensive network of Historically Black Colleges and Universities The Billboard ,1927 Moore's Rural New Yorker ,1903 The United States Catalog Mary Burnham,Carol Hurd,1928 Rural New Yorker ,1896 Universalist Union ,1838 The Cultivator & Country Gentleman ,1881 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993 The Leader ,1855 Dictionary of American Biography Including Men of the Time Francis Samuel Drake,1872 The Christian Evangelist ,1902 Youth's Companion ,1880 Our Navy ,1955 Episcopal Watchman ,1828 The Chicago Record ,1857 Christian Standard ,1909 Dictionary of American Biography Francis S.
