The Light Princess and Other Fairy Stories by George MacDonald

George MacDonald, 2020-09-02 THE LIGHT PRINCESS When the Light Princess was born somebody screwed up an invitation to her christening and left out her evil aunt Who was a witch That evil aunt vented her spleen by casting a spell on the Princess that left her immune to gravity Which was a strange and often inconvenient way for things to be more than once the wind caught hold of her while she slept and you can go the most amazing places on the wind if you have no weight Then when the princess got to be a young woman she met a young prince and fell in love and the results of that love are the very essence of this tale I have never concealed the fact that I regarded him as my master The quality that had enchanted me in his imaginative works turned out to be the quality of the real universe the divine magical terrifying and ecstatic reality in which we all live C S Lewis on George Macdonald
