Marine Corps Tanks and Ontos in Vietnam LtCol Ray Stewart USMC,2019-10-03 Book Two the second of a three book series continues from 1966 in Book One to cover the action of Marine Corps Tankers and Ontos crewmen fighting the locally grown Viet Cong the better armed trained organized and equipped Viet Cong Main Forces and the North Vietnamese Army Regulars from 1967 thru 1968 in I Corps South Vietnam As in Book One and to continue in Book Three it features hundreds of personal stories on the spot in real time interviews of Marines just returning from their fight all which is framed within the official unit command chronologies and after action reports including documented lessons learned The maps personal pictures organizational charts and the citing of each Marine who gave his life are also linked to the Vietnam Wall and to the Foundation s web site with volumes of additional information about the Marines who left their sweat and blood in Vietnam battling their communist enemy The Devil Dogs at Belleau Wood Dick Camp,2008-04-15 Facing massed German machine guns the Marines made sweep after bloody sweep through Belleau Wood Repeatedly accosted by the retreating French and urged to turn back Captain Lloyd Williams of the 2nd Battalion 5th Marine Regiment uttered the now famous retort Retreat hell We just got here And indeed by the end of that terrible June of 1918 the Marines had broken the back of the Germans powerful spring offensive Their ferocity had earned them the nickname Teufelshunde Devil Dogs from their enemies it also won such admiration from their allies that the French government changed the name of Belleau Wood to Bois de la Brigade de Marine The Devil Dogs at Belleau Wood recreates the drama of the battle for Belleau Wood as it was experienced by those who were there Drawing on numerous firsthand accounts of the month long engagement the book captures the spirit of the Leathernecks in desperate battle It offers a harrowing look at a critical campaign in which as one soldier says men were being mowed down like wheat And amidst the carnage and cruelty it tells the very human story of camaraderie and courage that carried the day Rich with the personal insights and observations that bring history to life the book is illustrated with a great number of photographs many of which are rare and never before published Ripley's Raiders Vietnam Chronicles

Russell J Jewett,2013-04-16 How familiar is this You attend a reunion and inevitably several members recollecting a significant event begin arguing over when that event actually occurred As you listen to them debating over the circumstances you realize that neither has a clue as to the facts or sequence of events Since 2003 I have attended Third Battalion Third Marines Viet Nam Era reunions and listened to my fellow warriors of Lima Company recollecting stories of our glory days I noticed that every year the details of events became more and more obscure Of course one could consult the official Command Chronologies but not everyone has access to them Even if you do have access to this information it takes time to wade through all the data a task that the average individual would find tedious Some of the copies of the Command Chronologies are almost unreadable due to poor quality reproduction methods used Wouldn't it be helpful if all the information was assembled in one area and available for quick reference This project was an answer to that problem I started with the Lima Company roster for the end of February 1967 which listed all the members of Company Lima that participated in the battles with the North Vietnamese Army during the first five days of March for which we acquired the tag of Ripley's Raiders I then determined the Marine who had been with the unit the longest and the Marine who had been there the least length of time My goal for this project was to chronicle all the entries I could find on Lima Company during their tours of duty This required compiling information for a period of twenty eight months December 1966 thru March 1968 I included the names of all other members of Lima Company during this time frame to act as memory joggers for the reader I accessed the National Archives on line and in thirteen months transcribed everything I could find from the Command Chronologies into one chronological record of the events experienced by the members of Ripley's Raiders Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1990 Close Air Support And The Battle For Khe Sanh [Illustrated Edition] Lt.-Col Shawn

March of 1968 two divisions of the North Vietnamese Army NVA surrounded a regiment of U S Marines on a mountain plateau in the northwest corner of South Vietnam known as Khe Sanh The episode was no accident it was in fact a carefully orchestrated meeting in which both sides got what they wanted The North Vietnamese succeeded in surrounding the Marines in a situation in many ways similar to Dien Bien Phu and may have been seeking similar tactical operational and strategic results General William C Westmoreland the commander of the joint U S Military Assistance Command Vietnam COMUSMACV meanwhile sought to lure the NVA into the unpopulated terrain around the 26th Marines in order to wage a battle of annihilation with air power In this respect Khe Sanh has been lauded as a great victory of air power a military instrument of dubious suitability to much of the Vietnam conflict The facts support the assessment that air power was the decisive element at Khe Sanh delivering more than 96 percent of the ordnance used against the NVA Most histories of the battle however do not delve much deeper than this Comprehensive histories like John Prados and Ray Stubbe s Valley of Decision Robert Pisor s End of the Line and Eric Hammel s Siege in the Clouds provide excellent accounts of the battle supported by detailed analyses of its strategic and operational background but tend to focus on the ground battle and treat the application of air power in general terms They do not however make significant distinction between the contributions of the two primary air combat elements in this air land battle the 7th Air Force and the 1st Marine Air Wing An analysis of their respective contributions to the campaign reveals that they each made very different contributions that reflected very different approaches to the application of air power
