Lane Demas,2017-09-11 This groundbreaking history of African Americans and golf explores the role of race class and public space in golf course development the stories of individual black golfers during the age of segregation the legal battle to integrate public golf courses and the little known history of the United Golfers Association UGA a black golf tour that operated from 1925 to 1975 Lane Demas charts how African Americans nationwide organized social campaigns filed lawsuits and went to jail in order to desegregate courses he also provides dramatic stories of golfers who boldly confronted wider segregation more broadly in their local communities As national civil rights organizations debated golf s symbolism and whether or not to pursue the game s integration black players and caddies took matters into their own hands and helped shape its subculture while UGA participants forged one of the most durable black sporting organizations in American history as they fought to join the white Professional Golfers Association PGA From George F Grant s invention of the golf tee in 1899 to the dominance of superstar Tiger Woods in the 1990s this revelatory and comprehensive work challenges stereotypes and indeed the fundamental story of race and golf in American culture Pleasant Bend Dan Worrall,2016 Today s Greater

Houston is a vast urban place In the mid nineteenth century however Houston was a small town a dot in a vast frontier Extant written histories of Houston largely confine themselves to the small area within the city limits of the day leaving nearly forgotten the history of large rural areas that later fell beneath the city s late twentieth century urban sprawl One such area is that of upper Buffalo Bayou extending westward from downtown Houston to Katy European settlement here began at Piney Point in 1824 over a decade before Houston was founded Ox wagons full of cotton traveled across a seemingly endless tallgrass prairie from the Brazos River east to Harrisburg and later to Houston along the San Felipe Trail built in 1830 Also here Texan families fled eastward during the Runaway Scrape of 1836 immigrant German settlers trekked westward to new farms along the north bank of the bayou in the 1840s and newly freed African American families walked east toward Houston from Brazos plantations after Emancipation Pioneer settlers operated farms ranches and sawmills Near present day Shepherd Drive Reconstruction era cowboys assembled herds of longhorns and headed north along a southeastern branch of the Chisholm Trail Little physical evidence remains today of this former frontier world Doggy
