Copyright Office, 1965 Includes Part 1 Number 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals July December Artificial Intelligence in Education Ben Du Boulay, R. Mizoguchi, 1997 The theme of this book is Knowledge and Media in Learning Systems and papers that explore the emerging roles of intelligent multimedia and distributed technologies as well as computer supported collaboration within that theme are included The spread of topics is very wide encompassing both well established areas such as student modelling as well as more novel topics such as distributed intelligent tutoring on the World Wide Web Far from undermining the need to understand how learning and teaching interact the newer media continue to emphasise the interdependence of these two processes Collaboration and tools for collaboration are the major topics of interest Understanding how human learners collaborate how peer tutoring works and how the computer can play a useful role as either a more able or even a less able learning partner are all explored here Proceedings of the United States National Museum United States National Museum, 1929 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1864 Knowing,

Teaching, and Learning History Peter N. Stearns, Peter Seixas, Sam Wineburg, 2000-09 This four part volume identifies the problems and issues in late 20th and early 21st century history education working towards an understanding of this evolving field It aims to give both students and teachers insights into the best way of developing historical understanding in pupils

Guiding Light Kevin George Hovey, 2019-04-18 Rev Dr Alan Tippett was arguably one of the leading missiologists of the twentieth century Through his prolific pen poignant observations and powerful insights he significantly influenced mission research and activity in the period of the 1960s to 1980s This was particularly facilitated through his research writing and teaching at the Institute of Church Growth Fuller Theological Seminary School of World Mission and his inaugural editorship of the American Society of Missiology's journal Missiology An International Review Yet for those who did not know Tippett's material well the very specific nature of his research and writing limited the influence of his insights For example without already knowing the pertinent content why would a missionary to Thailand think of reading Tippett's Solomon Islands Christianity However according to Doug Priest editor of a number of Tippett's posthumous publications this volume has done what even Tippett himself did not do and that is to capture the key features of his missiology in one volume So Guiding Light functions as an in depth overview of The Essential Alan Tippett I can attest that the nature of Tippett's material continued to inform and inspire me throughout the eleven years of the research and writing of this study Books in Print, 1977 A
