In his Autobiography Gandhi wrote 'What I want to achieve what I have been striving and pining to achieve these thirty years is self realization to see God face to face. All that I do by way of speaking and writing and all my ventures in the political field are directed to this same end. While hundreds of biographies and histories have been written about Gandhi 1869-1948 nearly all of them have focused on the political social or familial dimensions of his life. Very few in recounting how Gandhi led his country to political freedom have viewed his struggle primarily as a search for spiritual liberation. Shifting the focus to the understudied subject of Gandhi's spiritual life Arvind Sharma retells the story of Gandhi's life through this lens. Illuminating unsuspected dimensions of Gandhi's inner world and uncovering their surprising connections with his outward actions Sharma explores the eclectic religious atmosphere in which Gandhi was raised his belief in reincarnation his conviction that morality and religion are synonymous his attitudes toward tyranny and freedom and perhaps most important the mysterious source of his power to establish new norms of human conduct. This book enlarges our understanding of one of history's most profoundly influential figures a man whose trust in the power of the soul helped liberate millions. div.
