Make Your Home Among Strangers Jennine Capó Crucet, 2016 When Lizet the daughter of Cuban immigrants and the first in her family to graduate from high school secretly applies and is accepted to an ultra elite college her parents are furious at her decision to leave Miami Just weeks before she's set to start school her parents divorce and her father sells her childhood home leaving Lizet her mother and Leidy Lizet's older sister a brand new single mom without a steady income and scrambling for a place to live Pulled between life at college and the needs of those she loves Lizet is faced with difficult decisions that will change her life

My Time Among the Whites Jennine Capó Crucet, 2025-06-25 From the author of Make Your Home Among Strangers essays on being an accidental American an incisive look at the edges of identity for a woman of color in a society centered on whiteness In this sharp and candid collection of essays critically acclaimed writer and first generation American Jennine Cap Crucet explores the condition of finding herself a stranger in the country where she was born Raised in Miami and the daughter of Cuban refugees Crucet examines the political and personal contours of American identity and the physical places where those contours find themselves smashed be it a rodeo town in Nebraska a university campus in upstate New York or Disney World in Florida Crucet illuminates how she came to see her exclusion from aspects of the theoretical American Dream

despite her family's attempts to fit in with white American culture beginning with their ill-fated plan to name her after the winner of the Miss America pageant. In prose that is both fearless and slyly humorous, My Time Among the Whites examines the sometimes hopeful, sometimes deeply flawed ways in which many Americans have learned to adapt, exist, and in the face of all signals saying otherwise, perhaps even thrive in a country that never imagined them here. — Home in Florida Anjanette Delgado, 2021-11-16 Independent Publisher Book Awards Silver Medal for Anthology National Indie Excellence Awards Finalist in the Anthology Category International Latino Book Awards Gold Medal for Best Fiction Multi Author International Latino Book Awards Honorable Mention Best Nonfiction Multi Author A powerful collection of contemporary voices showcasing a variety of voices shaped in and by a place that has been for them a crossroads and a land of contradictions. Home in Florida presents a selection of the best literature of displacement and uprootedness by some of the most talented contemporary Latinx writers who have called Florida home. Featuring fiction, nonfiction, and poetry by Richard Blanco, Jaquira Díaz, Patricia Engel, Jennine Capó Crucet, Reinaldo Arenas, Judith Ortiz Cofer, and many others, this collection of renowned and award-winning contributors includes several who are celebrated in their countries of origin but have not yet been discovered by readers in the United States. The writers in this volume, first, second, and third-generation immigrants to Florida from Cuba, Mexico, Honduras, Peru, Argentina, Chile, and other countries, reflect the diversity of Latinx experiences across the state. Editor Anjanette Delgado characterizes the work in this collection as literature of uprootedness, literatura del desarraigo, a Spanish literary tradition and a term used by Reinaldo Arenas. With the heart changing here and there, perspective of attempting life in environments not their own, these writers portray many different responses to displacement, each occupying their own unique place on what Delgado calls a spectrum of belonging. Together, these writers explore what exactly makes Florida home for those struggling between memory and presence. In these works, as it is for many people seeking to make a new life in the United States, Florida is the place where the uprooted stop to catch their breath long enough to wonder: What if I stayed? What if here could one day be my home? Buller, Robert E. Cipriano, 2021-06-01 Many colleges and universities are struggling to strike a balance between protecting free speech as a way of supporting their goal of academic freedom and promoting civility as a way of creating an environment where students can learn and faculty members can teach and conduct research There have been numerous recent incidents of audiences shouting down speakers burning books and demanding that specific students be expelled or faculty members be terminated In this highly fractious environment schools are wondering What works when seeking to attain the twin goals of permitting unrestricted speech but insisting on rules of decorum for debate and the exchange of perspectives This book explores what schools have actually attempted in some cases successfully and in some cases not successfully to address these issues It concludes that there are three primary strategies that tend to be effective treating challenges to free speech and campus civility as teachable moments exploring hypothetical scenarios with students faculty members and administrators before there is a serious incident and approaching free speech and campus civility across the curriculum The book also surveys United States case law on the topics of free speech academic freedom the right to protest and similar subjects so as to provide faculty members and administrators with a concise resource filled with practical and accurate information

Chinese Prodigal David Shih, 2023-08-15 From an exciting and sharp voiced new observer of American culture a forthright and probing debut exploring Asian American identity in a racially codified country After his father's passing in 2019 David Shih sought to unravel the underlying tensions that defined the complex relationship between him and his parents Ultimately this forced a reckoning with the expectations he encountered as the only son of Chinese immigrants and with the realities of what it means to be Asian in a de facto segregated country At a moment when anti Asian racism is increasingly overt Chinese Prodigal is a work of rare subtlety offering a new vocabulary for understanding a racial hierarchy too often conceived as binary In public life and in Shih's own Asian Americanness has changed shape constantly directed by the needs of the country's racial imaginary A sliding scale visibility for Asians in America has always been relative to the meanings of white and Black A memoir in essays Chinese Prodigal examines the emergence of Asian American identity in a post Civil Rights America in the wake of Vincent Chin's death Shih guides us through the roles offered to Asian Americans to play whether a model minority a collaborator in the carceral state or a plaintiff in the right wing effort to dismantle affirmative action illuminating what these issues have to teach us about American values and about the vexed place Asians and Asian Americans inhabit today And mining his own experiences from his failures of filiality to his negotiations within an interracial marriage Shih masterfully captures the intimate costs of becoming an American Chinese Prodigal knits together the personal the historical and the present offering an incisive examination of a society and the people it has never made space for It is a moving testimony of a son father and citizen stepping outside the identities imposed on him

The Value and Limits of Academic Speech Donald

Alexander Downs,Chris W. Surprenant,2018-05-03 Free speech has been a historically volatile issue in higher education In recent years however there has been a surge of progressive censorship on campus This wave of censorship has been characterized by the explosive growth of such policies as trigger warnings for course materials safe spaces where students are protected from speech they consider harmful or distressing micro aggression policies that often strongly discourage the use of words that might offend sensitive individuals new bias reporting programs that consist of different degrees of campus surveillance the dis invitation of a growing list of speakers including many in the mainstream of American politics and values and the prominent shouting down or disruption of speakers deemed inconsistent with progressive ideology Not to be outdone external forces on the right are now engaging in social media bullying of speakers and teachers whose views upset them The essays in this collection written by prominent philosophers political scientists sociologists and legal scholars examine the issues at the forefront of the crisis of free speech in higher education The contributors address the broader historical cultural legal and normative contexts of the current crisis and take care to analyze the role of due process in protecting academic freedom and individuals accused of misconduct Additionally the volume is unique in that it advances practical remedies to campus censorship as the editors and many of the contributors have participated in movements to remedy limitations on free speech and open inquiry The Value and Limits of Academic Speech will educate academic professionals and informed citizens about the phenomenon of progressive censorship and its implications for higher education and the republic Buzz Books2024: Spring/Summer ,2024-01-16 Buzz Books 2024 Spring Summer is the 24th volume in our popular sampler series This Buzz Books presents passionate readers with an insider s look at nearly sixty of the buzziest books due out this season Such major bestselling authors as Ally Condie Christina Dodd and Emiko Jean are featured along with literary figures like Mateo Askaripour Abi Dar Alison Espach Peter Nichols and more Buzz Books has had a particularly stellar track record with highlighting the most talented exciting and diverse debut authors and this edition is no exception Rita Bullwinkel editor at large for McSweeney s and deputy editor of The Believer offers a novel on women boxer while Lily Samson s title has already been preempted by Sony Pictures Television One YA and two nonfiction authors make their adult fiction debuts Kristen Perrin Mary Anna se Heglar and Kate Young respectively Among others are Essie Chambers Katelyn Doyle Alejandro Puyana and Rachel Rueckert Our robust nonfiction section covers such important subjects as suicide and combating racist biases several memoirs about harrowing childhoods and illnesses and a biography of the first Asian American woman pilot to fly during World War II Finally we present early looks at new work from young adult authors including the New York Times bestselling Tracey Baptiste and Morgan Matson The YA titles also represent more diversity than ever with Aboriginal Chinese Korean Japanese Malaysian and Trinidadian novelists And be sure to look out for Buzz Books 2024 Fall Winter coming in May for next season s most talked about books Teaching and Learning in the New Latino Diaspora Edmund T. Hamann,Socorro G. Herrera,Enrique G. Murillo,Stanton Wortham,2024-11-22 This volume does more than document an educational dynamic that impacts Latino populations across the United States it also connects educational challenges to concrete plans for how those problems can be resolved Both experienced and new scholars describe strategies and outline policies to support academic success affirm identity and belonging and show how educational institutions can be transformed to better serve Latino constituencies in a post pandemic world where insistent efforts at right of belonging and affirmation counter Trumpian xenophobia and hostility Examples from elementary education to higher education supply familiar points of entry but also challenge readers to explore scenarios and strategies that they have not previously considered Each chapter begins with empirical documentation of an educational problem involving Latino populations where their presence is relatively new mainly post IRCA and goes on to outline how that problem can be resolved The text includes depictions of how youth participatory action research can diversify teacher education recruitment what authentically welcoming college campuses might look like how high school literature classes could include more Latino authors and much more Book Features Includes detailed examples of practice to assist teachers and school leaders in restructuring their classrooms and programs to better serve Latino students Describes settings and scenarios from across the United States that will be familiar to those teaching leading or preparing to do so Focuses on the new diaspora as distinct from states with traditionally large Latino populations Argues that lagging educational outcomes are far from inevitable and that inclusion engagement and success are possible and worth striving for
