Ethics for Apocalyptic Times Daniel Shank Cruz, 2023-11-21

Ethics for Apocalyptic Times is about the role literature can play in helping readers cope with our present day crises including the COVID 19 pandemic climate change and the shift toward fascism in global politics Using the lens of Mennonite literature and their own personal experience as a culturally Mennonite queer Latinx person Daniel Shank Cruz investigates the age old question of what literature's role in society should be and argues that when we read literature theapoetically we can glean a relational ethic that teaches us how to act in our difficult times In this book Cruz theorizes theapoetics a feminist reading strategy that reveals the Divine via literature based on lived experiences and extends the concept to show how it is queer decolonial and equally applicable to secular and religious discourse Cruz's analysis focuses on Mennonite literature including Sofia Samatar's short story collection Tender and Miriam Toews's novel Women Talking but also examines a non Mennonite text Samuel R Delany's novel The Mad Man alongside practices of haiku and tarot to show how reading theapoetically is transferable to other literary traditions Weaving together close reading and personal narrative this pathbreaking book makes a significant and original contribution to the field of Mennonite literary studies Cruz's arguments will also be appreciated by literary scholars interested in queer theory and the role of literature in society

Protecting the Weak in East Asia Iwo

Amelung,Moritz Bälz,Heike Holbig,Matthias Schumann,Cornelia Storz,2018-06-13 This book investigates public claims for the protection of weak groups and interests in Japan and China from the nineteenth century to the present day Taking an interdisciplinary approach it engages with ongoing global debates relevant to both Western and non Western societies whilst also providing an historically informed analysis of contemporary issues Using case studies on disaster victims employee well being cultural heritage and animal welfare this book analytically distinguishes between framing mobilisation and institutionalisation processes It examines these processes at the intersections of international and domestic spheres and in doing so demonstrates how drives for protection are formulated contested and played out in practice Ultimately however this book argues that claims for protection do not necessarily translate into effective measures but may in fact entail ambiguous or negative outcomes for the protected weak Protecting the Weak in East Asia makes a significant contribution to the empirical and theoretical research into the transformation of East Asian societies As such it will appeal to students and scholars of Asian history Asian culture and society and East Asian Studies more broadly
