Teaching and Learning the Love of God Joseph Ratzinger, 2017-07-13 This inspiring collection of homilies delivered by Joseph Ratzinger Benedict XVI over six decades offers deep theological and historical insights on the meaning of the life and the witness of a Catholic priest When Pope Benedict XVI inaugurated the Year for Priests in 2009 he did so in conjunction with celebrating the 150th anniversary of the death of John Vianney the patron saint of all parish priests Benedict's purpose for that special year is the same purpose of this book of homilies to deepen the commitment of all priests to interior renewal for the sake of a stronger and more incisive witness to the Gospel in today's world As St John Vianney would often say The priesthood is the love of the heart of Jesus This touching expression makes us reflect on the immense gift that priests represent not only for the Church but for all mankind Contemporary men and women need priests to be distinguished by their determined witness to Christ These homilies are meant to illuminate and to inspire priests to renew their commitment to teaching and learning the love of God The homilies cover a wide variety of important topics on the priesthood all deeply rooted in Scripture including acting in persona Christi becoming an offering with Christ for the salvation of mankind being there for God's mercy and witnessing Christian joy implications of Christ's identity and its importance for our spiritual lives God's Love Song Murray Bodo, Susan Saint Sing, 2024-03-05 The Canticle of the Creatures is Francis's love song. It is Franciscan wholeness for in it is contained the depth of his prayer and of his life in Christ. In its singing he was singing his dying and his rising for his song was a journey of praise and thanksgiving for his place of origin and his destination the Most High All Powerful Good Lord. Murray Bodo Using St Francis's canticle as a framework Murray Bodo a Franciscan friar and Susan Saint Sing a secular Franciscan reflect on the vision of Francis and Clare as it has played out over the course of their own lives. Susan's experiences of healing during trips to Assisi and praying in nature and Murray's deep understanding of Francis and Clare as poets and mystics come together in a duet that brings God's love song to life. These deeply personal reflections explore the power of prayer and meditation the sacredness of all creation and the pull of sacred places. This meditative reflective reading experience conveys what a lifetime of Franciscan spirituality looks like and will draw you into exploring your own experience of the vision of Francis and Clare.

The Position of the Adopted Child of God Chibuzo N. A. Uruakpa, 2023-04-12 The declaration by Paul the Apostle that if any one be in Christ he is a new creature old things have passed away behold all things are become new encapsulates the restorative transformation of the believer. Yet many don't have a clear understanding of the status this transformation confers on the believer in Christ. In The Position of the Adopted Child of God Dr Uruakpa presents in a readable and compelling language the transcendent newness of the adopted child of God detailing the necessity of the adoption the cost method and consequences of the adoption and the benefits of the newness accruing to the believer in the form of their secure inheritance. The author sounds a note of warning to twenty first century believers to beware of all the forces that threaten to sabotage this privileged position as God's adopted child. This position in spite of all odds the author underscores is unassailable in the life of the child of God who is seated with Christ astounding.
