The Spiritual Journals of Warren Felt Evans Warren Felt Evans,2016-12-19 Warren Felt Evans 1817 1889 converted to Methodism while at Dartmouth College became a minister and spent his Methodist years as a spiritual seeker His two extant journals edited and annotated by Catherine L Albanese appear in print for the first time and reveal the inner journey of a leading American spiritual pilgrim at a critical period in his religious search A voracious reader he recorded accounts of intense religious experience in his journals He moved from the Oberlin perfectionism he embraced early on through the French quietism of Madame J Guyon and Archbishop F nelon then into Swedenborgianism spiritualism and mind cure with distinct theosophical overtones His carefully documented journey is suggestive of the similar journeys of the religious seekers who made their way into the burgeoning metaphysical movement at the end of the 19th century and may shed light too on today s spirituality Now You Ve Got Me Thinking Susanna Blake Murphy,2011-03-15 As youve probably noticed by now life gets harder as you get older and your feelings about things get bigger and bigger Sometimes you feel happy sometimes you feel frustrated sometimes you feel bored and sometimes you feel alone One of the best and most fun ways to deal with all these different feelings is to write them down Now Youve Got Me Thinking is the perfect place to record your thoughts and feelings If you have kept a diary before and thought it was fun for a day or two but then gradually lost interest or couldnt think of things to write this journal is for you Each day it asks you a few questions to spark some thoughts Some of the questions are funny or weird and others are more serious Some days you will be in the mood for the fun parts and other days you might just need a place to write down your feelings to help you begin to sort through some tricky problems Either way Now Youve Got Me Thinking offers the best place to start your life as a diary keeper Have fun and answer quirky questions about yourself Chamber's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts ,1880 The Ladies' Home
