Healing Through Mothering Discovering The Great Mother Within:

Healing Through Mothering Jody Berman, 2015-04-20 Indigenous Motherhood in the Academy Robin Zape-tah-hol-ah Minthorn, Christine A. Nelson, Heather J. Shotton, 2022-08-19 Indigenous Motherhood in the Academy highlights the experiences and narratives emerging from Indigenous mothers in the academy who are negotiating their roles in multiple contexts The essays in this volume contribute to the broader higher education literature and the literature on Indigenous representation in the academy filling a longtime gap that has excluded Indigenous women scholar voices This book covers diverse topics such as the journey to motherhood lessons through motherhood acknowledging ancestors and grandparents in one s mothering how historical trauma and violence plague the past and balancing mothering through the healing process More specific to Indigenous motherhood in the academy is how culture and place impacts mothering specifically if Indigenous mothers are not in their traditional homelands as they raise their children how academia impacts mothering how mothering impacts scholarship and how to negotiate loss and other complexities between motherhood and one s role in the academy Mothers, Mothering and Sex Work Jaremko Rebecca Bromwich, 2015-07-01 Exploring the shared intersections of mothering motherhood and sex work Mothers Mothering and Sex Work weaves together a range of voices from academic and sex worker communities around the world It features interdisciplinary contributions scholarly essays academic research artwork poetry photography and experiential narratives Notable among these are two modern masterpieces from literary legends Voices a short story by Alice Munro and excerpts from Maya Angelou s autobiography Gather Together in my Name In the spirit of the adage nothing about us without us Mothers Mothering and Sex Work brings together unique and controversial viewpoints defying conventional wisdom to provide fresh insights into sex workers and their rights Beginning with the political legal and social context of sexuality and gender in Canada the book s focus widens to explore issues affecting sex workers worldwide Self-Mothering Deborah L. Bernal, 2017-07-10 Raising ourselves from cradle to grave is a big job Breaking old habits and challenging our cultivated mindsets is difficult As children we are guided by our parents and teachers but as adults who assists us in our development Who can help us to heal the wounds of our childhoods repair the brokenness of our adulthoods and inspire the next chapters of our new lives While it takes a village to raise a child it takes a council to raise an adult In Self Mothering My Mothers Council author and psychiatrist Deborah Lee Bernal introduces an active process to help us find heroes contemporary role models and personal mentors people that we can rely on to help us develop and heal as adults Through this process of self mothering you can choose who motivates you and whom you want to emulate for your own council of mothers this council can guide you to your destiny and Dr Bernal suggests a number of renowned women to follow on this path Maya Angelou the lawyer mother Fa Mulan mother wit the biblical prophetess Deborah the queen mother Mother Teresa doctor mom Harriet Tubman the godmother and many many more The lives of these women speak volumes and can today reveal a path to your own enlightenment You do not have to choose these mothers

you can choose the women for your own council of mothers Because through all stages of our lives we need our mothers counsel Global Perspectives on Motherhood, Mothering and Masculinities Andrea Moraes,Tola Olu

Pearce,2021-06-01 The two phenomena highlighted in this edited volume motherhood mothering and masculinities are each recent areas of development in critical Feminist and Men s Studies In contributing to these areas of gender studies this book draws attention to the fact that much can also be gained when we explore relationships between them an idea that may not readily come to mind While femininities and masculinities are co constructed motherhood and mothering bring additional perspectives to the study of femininity that affect the construction of masculinity in complex ways The 12 chapters in this volume allow readers to ponder some of these complexities and may suggest other issues that require investigation Spanning many continents the essays have both a global and historical reach emphasising cultural differences and historical changes Of import is the idea that mothers have agency and are active in constructions affecting their lives They are able to bring motherhood out of the shadows as they strive to build re evaluate or alter their roles within families and communities These have an impact on developments in masculinities The book is divided into three parts and the chapters investigate a wide range of issues including cultural constructs gender in parent child relationships non binary developments the impact of war on mothering decolonisation struggles and much more Mothers on the Margin E Anne Clements,2014-08-28 The Gospel of Matthew opens with a patrilineal genealogy of Jesus that intriguingly includes five women Tamar Rahab Ruth she of Uriah and Mary In a gospel that has a strongly Jewish and male orientated outlook why are women incorporated Particularly why include these four Old Testament women alongside Mary Rejecting traditional as well as feminist views E Anne Clements undertakes a close literary reading of the narratives to discern how each woman is characterised and presented All are significant scriptural figures on the margins of Israelite society From this intertextual world established by Matthew Clements explores why Matthew may have named these women in the opening genealogy and what implications their inclusion may have for the ongoing gospel narrative Mothers on the Margin argues that Matthew s Gospel contains a counter narrative focused on women The presence of the five women in the genealogy indicates that the birth of the Messiah will bring about a crisis in Israel s identity in terms of ethnicity marginality and gender The women signal that Matthew s Gospel is concerned with the construal of a new identity for the people of God Islāmic Counselling and Psychotherapy

G. Hussein Rassool,2024-10-08 Isl mic Counselling and Psychotherapy An Introduction to Theory and Practice provides foundation level knowledge of and perspective on the fundamental principles and practices of counselling and psychotherapy from an Isl mic perspective This groundbreaking practical framework incorporates Isl mic spirituality religion and cultural contexts into the therapeutic process It makes the case that authentic Isl mic spirituality based on submission to God forms the cornerstone of good mental health The book s foundation focuses on the therapist s role and ethical considerations specific to Isl mic psychotherapy It explores the integration of Qur nic teachings and h d ths and delves into dream interpretation and the clinical applications of the Siraat Al Isl mic psychotherapy practice model This thoroughly revised new edition also highlights advances and developments in scholarship and evidence based practices and introduces postmodern psychotherapy approaches like narrative and hope therapy This text provides a clear understanding of the nature scope and process of Isl mic psychotherapy for Isl mic practitioners or clinicians working with Muslim clients The Pain Mothers

Must Never Expose: Michelann Parr,2024-07-04 In this collection contributors reject the narrative that suggests that the pain of mothers must never be exposed They allow their pain to wander outside the frame of the requisite pathos individual pieces reveal pain to be a complex and intersectional practice that encompasses denial and disenfranchisement where pain is birthed and named disorientation leading to a search for stable ground destabilization that inspires non normative mothering and discovery as an active stance that transforms intergenerational pain As contributors take up the challenge of unravelling their stories they reach for a life sustaining and hopeful shift in consciousness that allows them to listen to what pain has to offer without judgment to imagine and create a different future for themselves their children and the world and to let go of maternal pain and suffering as a way of being Readers will be inspired by raw honesty authenticity and willingness to embrace story as a gift to self Discovery the Popular Journal of Knowledge John Andrews Benn, Women's Power to Heal through Inner Medicine Maya Tiwari, Revisioning Women, Health and Healing Adele E. Clarke, Virginia Olesen,2013-11-12 This engaging collection examines the implications and representations of race class and gender in health care offering new approaches to women s health care Subjects covered range from reproductive issues to AIDS

Texts Joseph McDonald,2017-05-18 In this collection the first of its kind prominent scholars explore the intersections of research on moral injury in contexts of war and violence and how scriptures of Judaism Christianity Islam Buddhism and American civil religion depict and address moral injury Architecture and the Right to Heal Esra Akcan,2025-10-03 Esra Akcan explores architecture s role in the healing processes that take place following socioeconomic political and environmental disasters How I Discovered My Mother Was A Goddess Beverly Charles,2010-11 In How I Discovered My Mother Was A Goddess Beverly Charles tells the poignant story of aging and dementia from the point of view of both the parent and child At some times troubling and other times darkly comic it provides a vision of a spiritual journey one that is healing authentic and satisfying In addition to offering us the story of a mother and daughter as they struggle with old age and death Beverly moves more deeply into the psyche to understand the goddesses at work in herself and her mother during the various phases of life We journey through the author s and her mother s relationship to each other and to eight goddesses Artemis Hestia Aphrodite Athena Demeter Persephone Hera and Mary By taking us on this odyssey with her she not only deepens our understanding of the feminine and the goddesses that personify it but reveals how these goddesses manifest in everyday life This story enhances our understanding of the divine feminine This book is for all those who have loved ones experiencing any form of dementia as our intellectual connection diminishes may we become more connected in our hearts This book is also for women and the men who love them may we never be ashamed of the journey that brings us home to the goddess within Parenting as Spiritual Practice and Source for Theology Claire Bischoff,Elizabeth O'Donnell

Gandolfo,Annie Hardison-Moody,2017-12-13 This volume investigates how mothers can understand parenting as spiritual practice and what this practice means for theological scholarship An intergenerational and intercultural group of mother scholars explores these questions that arise at the intersection of motherhood studies religious practice pastoral care and theology through engaging and accessible essays Essays include both narrative and theological elements as authors draw on personal reflection interviews and or sociological studies to write about the theological implications of parenting practice rethink key concepts in theology and contribute to a more robust account of parenting as spiritual practice from various theological perspectives The volume both challenges oppressive religious images of self sacrificing motherhood and considers the spiritual dimensions of mothering that contribute to women s empowerment and well being It also deepens practical and systematic theologies to include concern for the embodied and everyday challenges and joys of motherhood as it is experienced and practiced in diverse contexts of privilege and marginalization The Daughter's Return Caroline Rody, 2001 The Daughter's Return offers a close analysis of an emerging genre in African American and Caribbean fiction produced by women writers who make imaginative returns to their ancestral pasts. Considering some of the defining texts of contemporary fiction: Toni Morrison's Beloved, Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea, and Michelle Cliff's No Telephone to Heaven, Rody discusses their common inclusion of a daughter who returns to the site of her people's founding trauma of slavery through memory or magic. Rody treats these texts as allegorical expressions of the desire of writers newly emerging into cultural authority to reclaim their difficult inheritance and finds a counter plot of heroines' encounters with women of other racial and ethnic groups running through these works. Mothers as Keepers and Tellers of Origin Stories Kerri S. Kearney, 2019-12-01 This collection presents diverse critical perspectives and discussion about the keeping or telling of children's origin stories as a part of contemporary mothering labor. The first two sections outline perspectives from mother authors about how they strategically craft complex origin stories for their children as well as how the telling and retelling of origin stories may be passed on as generational knowledge. The third section discusses mothering and origin stories from multiple perspectives: that of a father by adoption of single mothers, positioning stories of absent fathers, and a multi-perspective chapter that includes a mother by adoption, her adult child, and her child's birthmother. The Power of Forgiveness Sandra Heard, 2020-10-06 Author coach and speaker Sandra Heard shares powerful insight that everyone needs to embrace about the power of forgiveness. This life-changing message will help you on your road to healing and restoration.
