Hearing Equals Behavior: Updated and Expanded Guy Berard, MD, Sally Brockett, MS, 2014-01-10 If you are a parent or teacher working with individuals who struggle to process auditory and sensory information you will find that this book offers new understanding of these problems and most importantly explains the intervention called Berard auditory integration training AIT This 10 hour training program reorganizes the dysfunctional auditory and sensory center so the brain no longer gets overloaded with confusing information Berard AIT is regarded as the most effective approach available for enhancing listening skills language learning sound tolerance and sensory modulation Evaluation of learning and behavior difficulties should include how the individual hears Are there distortions timing delays misperceptions sequencing problems These disruptions will interfere with processing until the auditory system is reorganized and balanced Pre and post test data provided in this book demonstrates the types of improvements that may be observed after this 10 day retraining program Readers will understand how listening and learning can switch on when the auditory system is rebalanced and functioning effectively Studies show that this short term intervention leads to long term achievement when distortions timing delays and misperceptions in processing are eliminated This 300 page book explains the concepts underlying Dr Berard s method and how he developed his retraining program through years of detailed clinical observations Professionals familiar with Berard AIT recommend his program for those struggling with learning and behavior Cutting-Edge Therapies for Autism

policies practices institutions and interpersonal behavior leading to a more just society Even if our collective consent to equal opportunity is devoid of much substance it forms a shaky platform for a more thoughtful exploration and deliberation of what equal opportunity requires of us individually and collectively This book offers a substantive concept principle and disposition that can guide our thinking about justice and rescue us from an empty cliché It proposes meaningful content for equal opportunity as a morally socially politically and science informed conception The how of equal opportunity requires that society its structures its associations and its individual citizens foster the capability of persons to become qualified to pursue a variety of outcomes they may choose The absence of prejudice irrelevant to qualifications in making appointments to positions at some starting line is required but insufficient Equality of opportunity calls for many renewals by society throughout the lives of its participants which includes new possibilities for persons disabled or incarcerated and for all persons as they age
