Heart of Darkness

Character Analysis

Charles Marlow:

Marlow is the protagonist and narrator of the story. He is a thoughtful and contemplative sailor who embarks on a journey up the Congo River to become a steamboat captain for a Belgian ivory trading company. Marlow serves as a window into the events and themes of the novella. He is a keen observer who becomes increasingly disturbed by the moral degradation he witnesses during his journey. Marlow's character represents the struggle to maintain one's humanity and morality in the face of the darkness of imperialism.

Kurtz:

Kurtz is a highly enigmatic and influential figure in the novella. He is an ivory trader who has been stationed deep in the African jungle for an extended period. Kurtz's character undergoes a profound transformation, descending into madness and brutality as he becomes obsessed with the acquisition of ivory and the exercise of power over the native Africans. He is both a symbol of the corrupting influence of imperialism and a reflection of the darkness that can reside within the human soul. Kurtz's famous phrase, "The horror! The horror!" underscores the moral abyss he has descended into.

The Manager:

The Manager is a character who represents the bureaucratic and self-serving nature of imperialism. He is a symbol of the company's interests, prioritizing profit and efficiency over morality. The Manager's actions contrast with Marlow's growing moral unease, highlighting the moral decay at the heart of the imperialist enterprise.

The Intended:

The Intended is Kurtz's fiancée in Europe, to whom he writes idealized letters. She represents the distant and abstract ideals that Kurtz has betrayed during his time in Africa. Marlow meets her after Kurtz's death and is faced with the moral dilemma of whether to reveal the truth about Kurtz's final moments or maintain the illusion she holds about him.

The Native Africans:

The native Africans in the story are depicted as victims of European imperialism. They are often marginalized and dehumanized by the colonizers. Conrad's portrayal of the Africans highlights the racism and brutality inherent in the imperialist project. The character of the "pilgrims" who accompany Marlow represents the dehumanizing effect of the ivory trade on both Europeans and Africans.

The Russian Trader:

The Russian trader is a minor character who lives near Kurtz's station. He serves as a contrast to Kurtz, as he admires Kurtz but maintains a degree of detachment from the horrors of his actions. The Russian trader's presence emphasizes the moral ambiguity and relativism of the novella.
