Against her better judgment Gin is coerced into attending a high society gala with the rest of Ashland's elite underworld On display the priceless art collection of her deceased nemesis Mab Monroe and an excess of crime boss swagger While not comfortable in her fancy attire Gin gets vastly more interested in the evening's events when a group of thieves bursts in and tries to seize the valuable dangerous gems Facing a Die Hard esque scenario in which she must free hostage partygoers while herself trapped in the museum things get a little bit messy when the bloodshed begins Let's just say that Gin should have chosen the red gown Snared Jennifer Estep, 2017-04-25 The sixteenth book in the New York Times bestselling Elemental Assassin urban fantasy series that RT Book Reviews calls An extraordinary series containing one of the most intriguing heroines in the genre Irony 101 The Spider herself snared in someone else's web Another week another few clues trickling in about the Circle the mysterious group that supposedly runs the city's underworld Gathering intel on my hidden enemies is a painstaking process but a more immediate mystery has popped up on my radar a missing girl My search for the girl begins on the mean streets of Ashland but with all the killers and crooks in this city I'm not holding out much hope that she's still alive A series of clues leads me down an increasingly dark dangerous path and I realize that the missing girl is really just the first thread in this web of evil As an assassin I'm used to facing down the worst of the worst but nothing prepares me for this new terrifying enemy one who strikes from the shadows and is determined to make me the next victim
