Fostering Children's Faith Jeanne Hall, 2012-03-29 Fostering faith in children is a shared privilege and responsibility of parents godparents and the church community We promise our children at baptism that we will support them in their faith formation in the formation of their relationship with God We need to take this promise seriously This book is intended to be an accessible and helpful resource for parents and other adults who seek to foster children s faith This book succinctly explores many ways we can support children s faith formation including our day to day interactions with children the images of God we share with them how we pray together the rituals we create service opportunities we provide music we share together the stories we tell and listen to our celebration of the sacraments and more While this book has a distinctly Roman Catholic orientation much of the content will be relevant for a wider Christian audience Lastly but perhaps most importantly this book is rooted in the conviction that the God we seek relationship with and that we hope to foster our children s relationship with is one who is infinitely loving welcoming and always yearning for deeper connection with us

Changing Church Jann Aldredge-Clanton, 2011-11-01 Through the fascinating stories of pioneering ministers this book reveals a unique picture of progressive changes occurring in the Christian tradition Meeting challenges and overcoming obstacles these twelve diverse ministers are changing the church as they take prophetic stands on gender race interfaith cooperation ecology sexual orientation economic opportunity and other social justice issues Believing in the power of sacred symbolism to shape social reality and to provide a foundation for justice and freedom for all people these ministers lead worship with inclusive language and imagery for humanity and divinity They include multicultural female and male images of the Divine Their stories affirm the connection between this expansive theology and an ethic of justice and equality in human relationships In working from within to change the church these ministers have risked censure by denominational authorities loss of opportunities for promotion to larger congregations or to prestigious denominational positions and even loss of their jobs They have found creative ways to balance advocating for change and working to support the church using their positions as ordained clergy to bring liberating change to the church and the wider culture

H. Spurgeon, Volume 4* Spurgeon, Charles,2015-02-23 Volume 4 Sermons 166 224 Charles Spurgeon 19 June 1834 31 January 1892 is one of the church's most famous preachers and Christianity's foremost prolific writers Called the Prince of Preachers he was one of England's most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today His sermons have spread all over the world and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades In his lifetime Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people often up to ten times each week He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel later the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London for 38 years He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works including sermons commentaries an autobiography as well as books on prayer devotionals magazines poetry hymns and more Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon's messages to be among the best in Christian literature Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London Volume 6 1878 quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon's meetings at Surrey Fancy a congregation consisting of 10 000 souls streaming into the hall mounting the galleries humming buzzing and swarming a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all After waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance Mr Spurgeon ascended his tribune To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach everyone in that vast assembly of his language that it is neither high flown nor homely of his style that it is at times familiar at times declamatory but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion cant hypocrisy pride and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life and to sum up all in a word it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity More than a hundred years after his death Charles Spurgeon s legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world For this reason Delmarva Publications has chosen to republish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon The Children's Sermons Preached in Christ Church, Brighton, in 1859-60 James Vaughan (Incumbent of Christ Church, Brighton.),1867 The Children's Sermon Preached in Christ Church, Brighton ... in 1859-60, Etc James VAUGHAN (Incumbent of Christ Church, Brighton.),1861 The Homiletic Review ,1906 *The Children's Sermon Preached in Christ Church, Brighton ...
