Global Citizenship Education Eva Aboagye, S. Nombuso Dlamini, 2021-03-01 The idea of citizenship and conceptions of what it means to be a good citizen have evolved over time On the one hand good citizenship entails the ability to live with others in diverse societies and to promote a common set of values of acceptance human rights and democracy On the other hand in order to compete in the global economy nations require a more innovative autonomous and reflective workforce meaning good citizens are also those who successfully participate in the economic development of themselves and their country These competing conceptions of good citizenship can result in people's participation in activities such as profit driven labor exploitation that contradict human rights and democratic tenants Thus global citizenship education is fundamental to teaching learning and redressing sociopolitical economic and environmental exploitation around the world Detailing the historical development of this field of study to achieve recognition Global Citizenship Education Challenges and Successes provides a critical discourse on global citizenship education GCE Authors in this collection discuss the underpinnings of global citizenship education via contemporary theories and methodologies as well as specific case studies that illustrate the application of GCE initiatives Editors Eva Aboagye and S Nombuso Dlamini aim to motivate learners and educators in post secondary institutions not only to understand the issues of social and economic inequality and political and civil unrest facing us but also to take action that will lead to equitable change in both local and global spaces
