RE: Nomination of Terry L. Mutchler to the State Open Government Hall of Fame

Dear Committee Members:

Terry Mutchler is a former Associated Press journalist turned Transparency lawyer that has devoted her entire professional career to open government. I write to nominate her for this award for her groundbreaking work in Pennsylvania in creating – from scratch – the Pennsylvania Office of Open Records, a new state agency to enforce open records laws.

Armed with a copy of the state's new Right-to-Know Law, a folding table, and a landline, Mutchler built the office from the ground up, interviewing and hiring staff; writing a budget; picking furniture and ultimately winning praise from both sides of the aisle and taking on her appointing Governor to fight for ease of citizen access. When she began her work, the Freedom of Information Coalition at the University of Missouri ranked Pennsylvania 49th in the nation. Today, the 22-person, $2.1 million office is ranked as high as 14th.

I witnessed first hand the struggles and victories as Mutchler hired me to join the specialized small group of lawyers at the Office of Open Records. I can attest to the veracity of the attached articles, in which Mutchler was fearless in taking on the powers of Pennsylvania government. Common Cause awarded Mutchler the Bob Edgar Public Service Award, saying that Mutchler "by force of imagination, initiative and perseverance has made an outstanding contribution to the public interest in the areas of Government performance and integrity." Democratic Gov. Ed Rendell who presented the award told the audience: "She pissed me off so many times, but she was the right person for the job." He later said, marking the 10th anniversary of the creation of the Office of Open Records, "the single most important decision I made for open government was hiring Terry Mutchler. She told me "no" when she needed to and she stayed true to the mission of open government."

Former Republican Senate Majority Leader Dominic Pileggi, who authored the legislation, said at an event marking the first year anniversary of the Right-to-Know law, that the appointment of Mutchler for Pennsylvania "was hitting a home run for open government."
