Chancellor, Rector, Esteemed Guests, Members of the Academic Board, Members of Administration, proud parents, spouses and loved one, and above all, graduates:

When I was asked to do this speech just three days ago, my nerves got the best of me, my mind went into autopilot and I did what I have been doing these last two and a half years - I researched the topic. I Googled 'graduation speeches', watched a few celebrity speeches on YouTube and even read up articles on how best to structure a graduation speech. I even wondered if I should include a list of references! While researching I came upon some really great material - stories which pull at one's heart strings and examples of impressive adventures. Yet even with all this information at my fingertips, I was still staring at an empty Word document a few hours later. I realised that no article was going to represent my experience throughout this Masters degree and no inspirational speech by a celebrity was going to portray my journey. So I followed the advice of a friend who told me to speak from the heart.

So this evening, I stand here extremely honoured and humbled to speak to you from the heart about learning, about life and about love.

Learning

During my recent trip to Thailand, I got chatting to Max, the young tour guide who was giving us a tour of the elephant temples. Max told me that he had recently graduated in tourism studies and that his parents and siblings had worked for years saving for him to go to university to get a degree in the hopes that he would make a better life for himself and maybe also for his family. He asked about me and I told him that I was on a well-deserved holiday after studying for two and a half years. Max then told me that while a small portion of his salary would go towards his living expenses, the bulk of it would be sent home to his family in the rice fields and that no matter how much he worked and saved, he would never have enough money to buy a plane ticket to travel outside of Thailand.

How fortunate are we, including Max, to be part of the 6.7% of the world population that has a university degree and that as of today we form part of an even smaller percentage of the world population that has a Masters degree? How fortunate are we, unlike Max, that we live in a democratic country with equal opportunities to learn and study up to a tertiary level of education for free? Had our college and undergraduate education been at a cost, some of us, like Max, would never have considered pursuing further education due to other commitments and obligations. I need not highlight the importance and value of learning - we sit in this hall today because of our desire to foster our learning, because of our curiosity to understand further and because of our need to continue to grow. What I do wish to emphasise today is to Never Stop Learning. Everywhere you go and everything you do is an opportunity to learn something new – go for it. Material things come and go, but what you learn is yours and no one can take that away from you. Therefore, I wish for you that your thirst for knowledge is never quenched and that you never stop learning.

And although we are here because of our desire to continue learning, we only sit here today because of the hard work and dedication of our educators, some of whom sit among us. Most of us today graduate in Masters degrees that did not exist within the University of Malta up until some years ago. Had it not been for some of our professors and lecturers who had passionately lobbied-for and promoted the significance of these courses,

The Principal's Graduation Joseph Jao Yiu Sung, 2019-01-15 Putting admirable rationales of university education into practice is never easy While it is popular to emphasize market values and competitive rankings moral values and ideals sound way too lofty nowadays Under tensions on campus and in society the head of a university takes the role of striking a balance as skilfully as possible Professor Joseph Sung is no exception to all these challenges He has been enjoying university life with teachers and students going through ups and downs with them This book a collection of 57 blog articles by Professor Sung during his tenure as the seventh Vice-Chancellor of The Chinese University of Hong Kong tells us the stories He talks about higher education and social responsibility pathways and choices our youths make the visions he had and the challenges he faced and life values which he wishes his students could take seriously Though generations come and go he still cares that they live a simple noble and humble life He hopes we care too

Lies in Modern American Autobiography Timothy Dow Adams,2017-10-10 All autobiographers are unreliable narrators Yet what a writer chooses to misrepresent is as telling perhaps even more so as what really happened Timothy Adams believes that autobiography is an attempt to reconcile one s life with one s self and he argues in this book that autobiography should not be taken as historically accurate but as metaphorically authentic Adams focuses on five modern American writers whose autobiographies are particularly complex because of apparent lies that permeate them In examining their stories Adams shows that lying in autobiography especially literary autobiography is not simply inevitable Rather it is often a deliberate highly strategic decision on the author s part Throughout his analysis Adams s standard is not literal accuracy but personal authenticity He attempts to resolve some of the paradoxes of recent autobiographical theory by looking at the classic question of design and truth in autobiography from the underside with a focus on lying rather than truth Originally published in 1990 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value
