Healing Muhammad Ali, 1996      Sports and the Racial Divide Michael E. Lomax, 2011-03-11 With essays by Ron Briley Michael Ezra Sarah K Fields Billy Hawkins Jorge Iber Kurt Kemper Michael E Lomax Samuel O Regalado Richard Santillan and Maureen Smith This anthology explores the intersection of race ethnicity and sports and analyzes the forces that shaped the African American and Latino sports experience in post World War II America Contributors reveal that sports often reinforced dominant ideas about race and racial supremacy but that at other times sports became a platform for addressing racial and social injustices The African American sports experience represented the continuation of the ideas of Black Nationalism racial solidarity black empowerment and a determination to fight against white racism Three of the essayists discuss the protest at the 1968 Olympic Games in Mexico City In football baseball basketball boxing and track and field African American athletes moved toward a position of group strength establishing their own values and simultaneously rejecting the cultural norms of whites Among Latinos athletic achievement inspired community celebrations and became a way to express pride in ethnic and religious heritages as well as a diversion from the work week Sports was a means by which leadership and survival tactics were developed and used in the political arena and in the fight for justice

Muhammad Ali Margueritte Shelton, 2023-02-08 An intimate portrait of Muhammad Ali that explores his ascent to greatness in the prizefighting ring and his extraordinary accomplishments as a celebrated humanitarian Muhammad Ali is arguably the greatest boxer of all time Yet outside his record breaking achievements in the ring he was admired by millions of people worldwide for his compassionate heart and altruistic endeavors Throughout his life Ali demonstrated an unwavering commitment to advancing justice and freedom that should never be forgotten In Muhammad Ali A Humanitarian Life Margueritte Shelton shows how the People's Champion transformed his success in the boxing ring into a powerful platform to further his fight against inequality injustice and oppressive politics Ali ascended to greatness during a violent decade of protests and revolutionary movements and Shelton vividly portrays the personal journey of this bold young dreamer as he pursued athletic glory to become a champion in the ring and a champion for human rights Featuring a rare collection of letters as well as exclusive interviews this book offers unique personal perspectives on the man who became world renowned as the Greatest of All Time With an emphasis on Ali's humanitarian endeavors Muhammad Ali reveals that the champion's greatest achievement was his lifelong fight to transform the world as a messenger of peace      The Boston Globe Index , 1996      A Time for Healing David E. Morgan PhD, 2013-01-30 Today in real families only a very small portion of the population comes from nurturing and supportive homes most individuals have been products of dysfunctional families instead In A Time for Healing author Dr David E Morgan provides a study of a dysfunctional family and presents principles necessary for sustaining a healthy family unit Through the interplay of the fictional four generation Gardner family A Time for Healing illustrates some events that can cause a family to be dysfunctional reveals the carnage left from the pain and discusses how to eradicate it The Gardners story shows how unhealthy family rules of behavior are passed down from parents to children and what a devastating effect this process has on families relationships organizational lives and society With ideas gleaned from more than forty years as an educator in the Chicago public schools including both part time and full time in higher education Morgan shows how we can envision and create a better way forward and avoid the imperfections of family dysfunction in the future A Time for Healing offers help for reclaiming the family by creating real effective positive change Cleaning up the family is about character communication forgiveness healing integrity love redemption respect understanding and the ownership of our acts
