Northeast India Parjanya Sen,Anup Shekhar Chakraborty,2023-07-20 This book formulates a new pedagogy of death with regard to Northeast India and shows how this pedagogy offers an understanding of alternative knowledge systems and epistemes In documenting a range of customs and practices pertaining to death dying and the afterlife among the diverse ethnic communities of Northeast India the book offers new soteriological epistemological sociological and phenomenological perspectives on death Through an examination of these eschatological practices and their anthropological theological and cultural moorings the book aims to reach an understanding of notions of indigeneity with regard to Northeast India The contributors to this book draw upon a range of subjects from songs literary texts monuments relics and funerary objects to biographies to folktales to stories of spirit possessions and supernatural encounters It collates the research of scholars primarily from Northeast India but also from Eastern India and offers an interdisciplinary analysis of these various belief systems and practices This book will of interest to those researchers and scholars interested in South Asia in general and Northeast India in particular and also to those interested in the social anthropology of religion cultural studies indigenous
