Gods Character Loving Knowing More:

A to Z of God's Character Sarah Travis,2015-11-25 Over the years I have questioned many aspects of God s character without even realizing it maybe I m not alone My fears show a lack of trust in His sovereignty and provision My continual planning shows a lack of belief in His omniscience He is all knowing When I question why I was placed in a certain situation I am doubting His perfect plan for my life When anger rises up in me while watching the heart wrenching pain of suffering I am putting His lovingkindness into question When I hold on to the sin of my past unable to forgive myself I am rejecting His atoning sacrifice cleansing power and forgiveness All of the fears doubts questions and emotions that rise up within me on a daily basis all count down to one common denominator They all show a lack of belief in the character of God I believe every Bible study should result in us knowing our Father and His Son Jesus more He reveals His character to us throughout Scripture The A to Z of God s Character is a journey through the ways the Lord reveals His nature to us in His Word Together we will learn how we are created to be like Him and reflect His character to the world around us By focusing on the true character of God we will grow closer to Him as we allow truth to wash away our lack of belief More Beautiful You Jonny Diaz,Gwendolyn Diaz,2010-07-09 Beauty is within your heart you are perfect just the way you are The God of the universe designed you before the foundation of the world to be exactly who you are not some touched up picture in a magazine He created you beautiful the way you are right now That may sound unbelievable but let Christian music artist Jonny Diaz

Eros and Self-Emptying Lee C. Barrett, 2013-11-30 A thought provoking comparative take on two seminal thinkers in Christian history In this book the first volume in the Kierkegaard as a Christian Thinker series Lee Barrett offers a novel comparative interpretation of early church father Augustine and nineteenth century philosopher theologian Soren Kierkegaard Though these two intellectual giants have been paired by historians of Western culture the exact nature of their similarities and differences has never before been probed in detail Barrett demonstrates that on many essential theological levels Augustine and Kierkegaard were more convergent than divergent Most significantly their parallels point to a distinctive understanding of the Christian life as a passion for self giving love Approaching Kierkegaard through the lens of Augustine Barrett argues enables the theme of desire for fulfillment in God to be seen as much more central to Kierkegaard's thought than previously imagined

More Than a Promise Hurbert F. Sturges, 2013-10-31 As soon as there was sin there was a Savior From times eternal God knew that Satan would introduce sin into planet earth infecting its inhabitants Out of His great love for the human family the Father Son and Holy Spirit united in carrying out the great plan of redemption and in fulfilling the everlasting covenant of grace In Mark's hard hitting Gospel the Son of God suddenly appears rising out of the

Jordan River hair wet anointed by the heavenly dove and surrounded by the thunder like echo of His Father's approval From this point on all of Jesus recorded words and actions move steadily and unflinchingly toward Christ's sacrifice on the cross where He suffered and died for the redemption of humankind Popular beliefs about the covenant have fragmented God's interactions with the human race insisting that God's plan of redemption for the Jews on Sinai had little or nothing to do with His plan of redemption for new covenant believers Taking his cue from Paul's aligning of God's new covenant promise with His covenant with Abraham and from Peter's New Testament repetition of God's promise of His people being a holy nation Dr Hubert F Sturges argues convincingly and biblically that there is more continuity than discontinuity in God's covenants with the human race Tracing God's saving actions through Scripture and history Dr Sturges reveals the strategic steps that the Father Son and Holy Spirit took in fulfilling their continuing commitment to the human family With bite sized chapters divided into three sections More Than a Promise The Everlasting Covenant as Presented Throughout History will cause you to reflect on God's great love and mercy for the human race

Speaking the Truth in Love Daniel R. Berger, 2007-01-01 Approaching public communication from a liberal arts point of view Speaking the Truth in Love provides a distinctly Christian perspective of rhetoric Written and oral rhetoric are interwoven throughout the text Two foundational ideas control the majority of the text The first is from Plato's Phaedrus as stated by Paul in Ephesians 4:15 speaking the truth in love The second is from the Apostle Peter in 1 Peter 4:11 if anyone speaks he should do it as one speaking the very words of God The spiritual responsibility of communicating truth in accordance with the nature of God especially the virtue of love is an awesome privilege and opportunity Sound content spoken or written eloquently with charisma will enable words to have a maximum impact The text is designed to be a culminating learning experience for undergraduate communication programs or as an introductory text for graduate programs involving public communication Beginning with a philosophy of language meaning and interaction argument is built against secular deconstructive thought where everyone has a different truth based on language Alongside philosophy we explore ethics and theology from an evangelical perspective Following this a brief history outlines rhetorical thought from pre-testament classics to today Based upon these ideas we take a closer look at communication theory as it relates to public communication Finally the text addresses the practice of both written and oral communication
