F. Scott Fitzgerald Nicolas Tredell, 1999 Presents a selection of critical responses to F Scott Fitzgerald's novel The Great Gatsby including both contemporary and later criticism and includes brief biographical information about Fitzgerald Bachelors, Manhood, and the Novel, 1850-1925 Katherine V. Snyder, 1999-09-02 Katherine Snyder's study explores the significance of the bachelor narrator a prevalent but little recognised figure in premodernist and modernist fiction by male authors including Hawthorne James

Conrad Ford and Fitzgerald Snyder demonstrates that bachelors functioned in cultural and literary discourse as threshold figures who by crossing the shifting permeable boundaries of bourgeois domesticity highlighted the limits of conventional masculinity The very marginality of the figure Snyder argues effects a critique of gendered norms of manhood while the symbolic function of marriage as a means of plot resolution is also made more complex by the presence of the single man Bachelor figures made moreover an ideal narrative device for male authors who themselves occupied vexed cultural positions By attending to the gendered identities and relations at issue in these narratives Snyder s study discloses the aesthetic and political underpinnings of the traditional canon of English and American male modernism National Union Catalog,1968 Includes entries for maps and atlases Bowker's Complete Video Directory, 1998 ,1998 Facts on File Yearbook 1974 Lester A.
