My Students Write Like They Text Jennifer French,2018-08-16 IMHO LOL OIC OMG If you ve recently graded middle school or high school writing chances are you ve read terms like these or my favorite wtf idk which also happened to be an answer on a student s quiz As a middle school English teacher I became more and more perplexed to see students using texting talk on their homework and classroom writing assignments not to mention answers on the writing portion of the state standardized test My students were not differentiating appropriate writing contexts The answers written on the unit test were written the same way that they invited their friends to hang Starbucks How do we as educators and parents allow students to creatively express themselves support them academically and prepare them for a professional world built on written and verbal communication Herein lies this text Hopefully it will alleviate the concerns of those who are worried about the disintegration of the English language and help those ISO in search of strategies to support textspeaking learners Literacy Instruction for Students Who are Deaf and Hard of Hearing Jennifer S. Beal,Hannah M. Dostal,Susan R Easterbrooks,2024-07-12 Most students who are deaf or hard of hearing DHH struggle with acquiring literacy skills some as a direct result of their hearing loss some because they are receiving insufficient modifications to access the general education curriculum and some because they have additional learning challenges necessitating significant program modifications This second edition of Literacy Instruction for Students who are Deaf and Hard of Hearing updates previous findings and describes current evidence based practices in teaching literacy to DHH learners Beal Dostal and Easterbrooks provide educators and parents with a process for determining which literacy and language assessments are appropriate for individual DHH learners and whether an instructional practice is supported by evidence or causal factors They describe the literacy process with an overview of related learning theories language and literacy assessments and evidence based instructional strategies across the National Reading Panel s five areas of literacy instruction phonemic awareness phonics vocabulary fluency and comprehension The volume includes evidence based writing strategies and case vignettes that highlight application of assessments and instructional strategies within each of these literacy areas Crucially it reviews the remaining challenges related to literacy instruction for DHH learners Educators and parents who provide literacy instruction to DHH learners will benefit from the breadth and depth of literacy content provided in this concise literacy textbook Structured Literacy Planner Louise Spear-Swerling,2024-03-29 This book describes a set of explicit approaches to teaching reading that have become known as Structured Literacy and that are especially effective for struggling readers Chapter 1 explains in detail the two main themes involving Structured Literacy and poor reader profiles and why they are important to successful teaching of poor readers Chapter 2 describes the structure of English at multiple levels words sentences and longer discourse a grasp of which is essential for SL teaching of both word reading and comprehension Chapter 3 focuses on assessment of poor readers specifically how to determine poor reader profiles and target interventions properly for individual students as well as how to use diagnostic assessments to further identify specific skills to address in intervention Chapters 4 and 5 focus on students with a profile of Specific Word Recognition Difficulties that is difficulties specific to word reading Chapters 6 and 7 address students with a profile of Specific Reading Comprehension Difficulties which involves students who have poor reading comprehension despite good word reading The topic of Chapters 8 and 9 involves students with a profile of Mixed Reading Difficulties who have difficulties both in word reading and language comprehension Improving Students' Writing, K-8 Diane M.
