History Teaching Manuals:

Studies in general history. Teacher's manual Mary Sheldon Barnes, 1886 Exploring American History Melvin Schwartz, John Richard O'Connor, 1986 Topical Discussion of American History William C. Doub, 2016-08-13 Excerpt from Topical Discussion of American History Constituting a Teachers Manual and Course of Study in History and Civics for Use in the Elementary Schools This little volume is a working manual for the teacher and constitutes a course in history and civics for the elementary schools Many able educators have been consulted in the preparation of this course and it is believed to be so complete in every detail that boards of education can adopt it as the course in history and civics without further reference to these subjects in the school manual or regular course of study This course has been prepared with especial reference to the regular text books Teachers and pupils frequently complain that the regular or official text on history is too difficult and it is hoped that this course will be of great assistance to them in the use of this text The discussions, references and questions in this volume are intended for the direct help and assistance of the teacher the object being to reduce the teacher's work to a minimum and to provide at the same time a broad and progressive course in history and civics In order to further the teacher a pupils outline for use in connection with this course of study has been prepared and is bound under a separate cover Special attention is directed to Questions for Class Recitations and Questions for Compositions and Examinations which follow each general topic 10 chapters in the work for the seventh and eighth grades About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Teaching American History by the Problem Method Lena A. Ely, Edith King, Martin James Stormzand, 1926 The Teaching of History Ernest C Hartwell, 2023-04 The Teaching of History by Ernest C Hartwell published in the early 20th century is a thorough manual for history teaching in American schools Hartwell highlights the value of teaching history as a topic that is current and interesting to students in this book He believes that history should be taught as a dynamic narrative that sheds light on the evolution of human civilization and culture rather than as a list of facts and dates In addition Hartwell discusses the difficulties of teaching history in today's multicultural and diverse society emphasizing the value of presenting the opinions and experiences of underrepresented groups He recommends that educators pay attention to the wants and needs of their pupils and work to provide a welcoming and encouraging learning environment The focus on the value and relevance of history as a topic is still relevant today and The Teaching of History offers a comprehensive and helpful manual for teaching history in American classrooms For both historians and educators the book is still an invaluable tool
