Greekscapes Journeys With An Artist:

Greekscapes Journeys With an Artist Pamela Jane Rogers,2013-11-03 Rose is an artist yet she lacks self confidence She was sidetracked too often when she was young and still makes decisions that interfere with a creative life now that she is older After twelve years of marriage she is still trying to have a baby by doing everything possible including the impossible thought try not to think about it Throwing herself into interior design gives her a feeling of accomplishment but it is yet another compromise There are moments of clarity that verge on the enlightenment she seeks but soon her doubts return Only her painting implores her to look inside and free up her emotional stalemate and that persistence soon leads her to a brilliant painting mentor Rose has wanted to paint in Provence since her earliest memories and finally she has the chance But the winds of change are blowing her to another destination Greece what can I paint there She soon finds the answer and an epiphany in an olive grove gives her the gift that could change her life But can she really survive as an artist She is tried to meet the challenges of a traditional lifestyle of marriage and children but how can she continue when her creative nature continues to lead her in another direction She must first give birth to her Self by taking a hard look at the subtle and not so subtle influences both sad and happy that have altered the course of her life Only then will she be able to overcome the major fear that she is denied since learning the truth of her own family history She finally embarks on her journey with the longing for creative fulfillment as her only companion Greece's vibrant colors are the perfect match for the lightness of spirit she needs to nurture in herself As the country and the people emerge with warmth and humor Rose is at last free to embrace her mature years as an artist and a single woman Isn't she

Greekscapes Bryony Sutherland,2017-03-03 A twist of fate sends this American artist to Greece on a painting workshop in 1982 After a luxurious swim in the Aegean an epiphany in an olive grove inspires her to continue her life's journey with art and either mend her broken marriage or end it Her mission is to learn from her past and resurrect faith in her intuition and her love of art Yearly art workshops abroad give unparalleled inspiration for her painting for seven more years ending with a devastating loss The dark curtain lowers when her mentor leaves the earth Divorce and plans for a secure future as an interior designer are put in motion as a foreign light continues to beckon the generous culture peals of laughter the people nature's landscapes the olive trees the mountains the turquoise sea the light the epiphany the most exhilarating moments of her 40 years have all been in Greece Can living there allow the serenity she seeks Most everyone agrees it is irrational for a middle aged woman on her own with minimal financial resources to simply follow her heart Maybe it is only a dream yet isn't it worth a try With courage hope and a sense of humor she journeys forth from her unfulfilled past to trust in the process of art and life on a Greek Island Will the enchantment last

Greekscapes Pamela Rogers,2015-05-13 I am an artist although it took me many years to find the creative life I had always yearned to live After a twelve year marriage trying in vain to have a child my depressed state of mind was beginning to take its toll Only my paintings implored me to look inside and free up my emotional stalemate What I found was not always pleasant yet my persistence led to a brilliant painting mentor and then by a twist of fate to Greece What can I paint here I asked myself I soon found the answer and a bizarre epiphany in an olive grove gave me the knowledge I needed to change my life But to leave everything move to another country and face possible failure It s probably tempting the Fates for a middle aged woman on her own with minimal resources to believe she can still realize her dreams and yet it s certainly worth a try

Greeksapes Pamela Rogers,2015-05-05 A twist of fate first sends this American artist to Greece to join a painting workshop in 1982 While there she is gifted with an epiphany to continue her life journey she must resurrect faith in her intuition forgive her past mistakes and either mend or end her broken marriage Yearly trips in the U S and abroad present unparalleled inspiration for her creative work for the next seven years until a devastating loss sends her messages she can no longer ignore While her plans for a secure future as a single are established the ephemeral past beckons her epiphany the generous people nature s landscape gardens olive trees mountains the murmur of the incredibly turquoise sea the peals of laughter can living there possibly allow the serenity she seeks in her work It may tempt fate for a middle aged woman on her own with minimal financial resources to simply follow her heart to a new world yet isn t it worth trying With great hope and a sense of humor she journeys forth from her unfulfilled past to trust in the process of art and life on the island of Poros
