The Magazine of Fantasy & Science Fiction, 1997-10 Women in Medicine in Nineteenth-Century American Literature Sara L.

Crosby, 2018-09-14 This book investigates how popular American literature and film transformed the poisonous woman from a misogynist figure used to exclude women and minorities from political power into a feminist hero used to justify the expansion of their public roles Sara Crosby locates the origins of this metamorphosis in Uncle Tom's Cabin where Harriet Beecher Stowe applied an alternative medical discourse to revise the poisonous Cassy into a doctor The newly medicalized poisoner then served as a focal point for two competing narratives that envisioned the American nation as a multi racial egalitarian democracy or as a white and male supremacist ethno state Crosby tracks this battle from the heroic healers created by Stowe Mary Webb Oscar Micheaux and Louisa May Alcott to the even more monstrous poisoners or vampires imagined by E D E N Southworth Oliver Wendell Holmes Theda Bara Thomas Dixon Jr and D W Griffith Women Moving Forward Judith Barr Bachay, Raúl Fernández-Calienes, 2010-02-19 Women Moving Forward Narratives of Identity Migration Resilience and Hope is an excellent example of ethnographic inquiry revealing the normative behavior of women within specific cultural boundaries while also illuminating the individual transcendence of norms in the quest for self realization The stories in Women Moving Forward are each unique in their depiction of culture and mores and allow the reader to catch a glimpse of the lives of women in various parts of the globe Despite their variety however the stories are united in their core as they each validate the very human need to hope for a future that is fulfilling and at least to some extent self constructed rather than imposed this book cannot be missed Associate Professor Beatriz Gonzalez Robinson Ph D LMHC Vice President for University Planning and Chief of Staff St Thomas University State Coordinator Office of Women in Higher Education Fellow American Council on Education These are the stories that find voice in the human spirit The simple yet deeply moving narratives of everyday people who share an extraordinary experience uprooting themselves from their native lands to seek the centuries old dream of a better life in the United States A new language new culture new political system With opportunities to grow nearly offset by deep seated prejudices that cause more than one to question the wisdom of their life altering decision Yet all persevere All prevail So ultimately these are the stories of everyday heroes though none might admit to it Pioneers following the great American tradition that says You are welcome here and with hard work and patience you too will realize your dream They hail from Cuba Jamaica and elsewhere but each has made a new home in a strange new place without sacrificing their cherished traditions and values And they and their adopted land are the better for it So sit back and enjoy these twelve humble yet beautiful tales Ra l Fern ndez Calienes and Judy Barr Bachay have given us a treasure Brother Herman E Zaccarelli C S C Formerly Director Educational Conference Center Kings College Pennsylvania

Oliver's handsome overbearing vaguely anti-Semitic Hungarian mother and his fraternal twin brother Bartholomew a gigantic and troubled young man with a morbid interest in Europe's great tyrants As the narrator finds himself drawn into a battle over the family's money and art he comes to sense that someone or perhaps the entire family is hiding an unsavory past Pursuing the truth from New York to London from Budapest to Portugal he remains oblivious to the irony of the search that in his need to understand Vice's life he is really grappling with ambivalence about his own     Light for the Writer's Soul
