Comparative Children's Literature Emer O'Sullivan, 2005-03-05 Emer O Sullivan traces the history of children's literature studies from the enthusiastic internationalism of the post war period which set out from the idea of a world republic of childhood to modern comparative criticism The Translation of Children's Literature Gillian Lathey, 2006-01-01 In the last few decades a number of European scholars have paid an increasing amount of attention to children's literature in translation This book not only provides a synthetic account of what has been achieved in the field but also makes us fully aware of all the textual visual and cultural complexities that translating for children entails Students of this subject have had problems in finding a book that attempted an up to date and comprehensive review of the field Gillian Lathey's Reader does just this Dr Piotr Kuhlczak Director Centre for Translation and Comparative Cultural Studies University of Warwick

Literary Afterlife Bernard A. Drew, 2010-03-08 This is an encyclopedic work arranged by broad categories and then by original authors of literary pastiches in which fictional characters have reappeared in new works after the deaths of the authors that created them It includes book series that have continued under a deceased writer's real or pen name undisguised offshoots issued under the new writer's name posthumous collaborations in which a deceased author's unfinished manuscript is completed by another writer unauthorized pastiches and biographies of literary characters The authors and works are entered under the following categories Action and Adventure Classics 18th Century and Earlier Classics 19th Century Classics 20th Century Crime and Mystery Espionage Fantasy and Horror Humor Juveniles 19th Century Juveniles 20th Century Poets Pulps Romances Science Fiction and Westerns Each original author entry includes a short biography a list of original works and information on the pastiches based on the author's characters Translating Children's Literature Gillian Lathey, 2015-07-24 Translating Children's Literature is an exploration of the many developmental and linguistic issues related to writing and translating for children an audience that spans a period of enormous intellectual progress and affective change from birth to adolescence Lathey looks at a broad range of children's literature from prose fiction to poetry and picture books Each of the seven chapters addresses a different aspect of translation for children covering Narrative style and the challenges of translating the child's voice The translation of cultural markers for young readers Translation of the modern picture book Dialogue dialect and street language in modern children's literature Read aloud qualities wordplay onomatopoeia and the translation of children's poetry Retranslation retelling and reworking The role of translation for children within the global publishing and translation industries This is the first practical guide to address all aspects of translating children's literature featuring extracts from commentaries and interviews with published translators of children's literature as well as examples and case studies across a range of languages and texts Each chapter includes a set of questions and exercises for students Translating Children's Literature is essential reading for professional translators researchers and students on courses in translation studies or children's literature The Story of Babar Jean De Brunhoff,1960 The story of Babar the little elephant A Critical History of French Children's Literature Penny Brown,2007 Merriam-Webster's Encyclopedia of Literature Merriam-Webster, Inc,1995 Describes authors works and literary terms from all eras and all parts of the world The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France,2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature It highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the issues raised making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean from Swahili to Russian For some works e.g Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Guide is divided into two parts Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e.g poetry oral literature The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e.g the Thousand and One Nights or writers e.g Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e.g Chinese poetry Spanish Golden Age drama or of a national literature e.g Hungarian Scottish Gaelic There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators The Modernist Bestiary Timothy Mathews,Sarah Kay,2020-07-08 The Modernist Bestiary centres on Le Bestiaire ou Cortège d'Orphée 1911 a multimedia collaborative work by French Polish poet Guillaume Apollinaire and French artist Raoul Dufy and its homonym The Bestiary or Procession of Orpheus 1979 by British artist Graham Sutherland Rather than reconstructing the lineage of these two compositions the book uncovers the aesthetic and intellectual processes involved that operate in different times places and media The Apollinaire and Dufy Bestiary is an open ended collaboration a feature that Sutherland develops in his re-visiting and this book shows how these neglected works are caught up in many faceted networks of traditions and genres These include Orphic poetry from the past contemporary musical settings and bestiary writing from its origins to the present The nature of productive dialogue between thought and art and the refracted light they throw on each other are explored in each of the pieces in the book and the aesthetic experience emerges as generative rather than reductive or complacent The contributors encounters with these works take the form of poetry and essays all moving freely between different disciplines and practices humanistic and posthumanist critical dimensions as well as different animals and art forms They draw on disciplines ranging from music art history translation Classical poetry and French poetry and are nurtured by approaches including phenomenology cultural studies sound studies and critical animal studies Collectively the book shows that the aesthetic encounter by nature affective is by nature also interdisciplinary and motivating and that it spurs the critical in addressing the complex issues of humananimality

The Music of Francis Poulenc (1899-1963) Carl B. Schmidt, 1995-10-19 The name of Francis Poulenc 1899 1963 was first brought to prominence in the 1920s as a member of Les Six a group of young French composers encouraged by Satie and Cocteau His subsequent fame spread well beyond France and he is coming to be regarded as one of this century's most significant composers His compositions are heard constantly in concert halls the world over and numerous recordings including complete sets of songs and piano music have been released Books articles and more than a dozen doctoral dissertations have discussed his music Carl Schmidt's catalogue of Poulenc's works represents the first comprehensive attempt to list an oeuvre which numbers approximately 185 compositions written from his teenage years until his death at the age of 63 The Catalogue identifies a number of unpublished works and adds a small group of compositions to his musical canon for the first time Each work whether complete or unfinished published or unpublished is described fully Catalogue entries list and describe all known printed editions including reprints and manuscript copies of each work In addition they provide detailed compositional histories based on numerous letters documents and press accounts many of which have not been published previously Russian interest in Poulenc's music manifested in press runs exceeding one million copies is also revealed for the first time
