Historical Perspectives of Fisheries Exploitation in the Indo-Pacific Joseph Christensen, Malcolm Tull, 2014-04-01 The waters of the Indo Pacific were at the centre of the global expansion of marine capture fisheries in the twentieth century yet surprisingly little has been written about this subject from a historical perspective This book the first major study of the history of fishing in Asia and Oceania presents the case studies completed through the History of Marine Animal Populations HMAP initiative It examines the marine environmental history and historical marine ecology of the Indo Pacific during a period that witnessed the dramatic escalation of industrial fishing in these seas Perspectives on Oceans Past Kathleen Schwerdtner Máñez, Bo Poulsen, 2016-05-24 Marine environmental history analyses the changing relationships between human societies and marine natural resources over time This is the first book which deals in a systematic way with the theoretical backgrounds of this discipline Major theories and methods are introduced by leading scholars of the field The book seeks to encapsulate some of the major novelties of this fascinating new discipline and its contribution to the management conservation and restoration of marine and coastal ecosystems as well as the cultural heritages of coastal communities in different parts of the world The Oxford Handbook of Environmental and Natural Resources Law in India Philippe Cullet, Lovleen Bhullar, Sujith Koonan, 2024-07-12 Environmental law is a broad discipline covering issues such as nature conservation the prevention or abatement of pollution and waste management It also encompasses concerns related to natural resources such as forests minerals and fisheries and the balance between their use and conservation India has been at the forefront of jurisprudential developments among countries with similar environmental geographical socio economic and cultural conditions Concurrently the country has been receptive to ideas and principles arising from other parts of the world or from international law The growth of environmental and natural resources law in India has been sustained in equal measure by growing environmental awareness and the increasingly dire nature of the problems associated with the environment and natural resources ranging from local issues to the global climate crisis At the same time the continuous push for development has not abated leading to recurrent pressure to weaken existing standards for environmental protection and the management and use of natural resources The Oxford Handbook of Environmental and Natural Resources Law in India offers the most comprehensive coverage of the diverse and complex discipline of environmental and natural resources law in India over the past fifty years With forty two contributions from law and non law scholars the Handbook presents diverse perspectives on several areas including biodiversity climate change water forests agriculture health resource extraction and industrial development By departing from the existing approach that examines natural resources law and environmental law separately The Oxford Handbook of Environmental and Natural Resources Law in India offers a much needed integrated analysis of the development of domestic jurisprudence vis vis the environment and natural resources The Catch Anna Clark, 2017-10-01 In every coastal town in Australia there s a bait shop and a boat ramp and in garages around the country fishing rods are strung up waiting for their next outing Many of us have a special fishing spot and families pass on tips from generation to generation and exchange fishy tales of amazing catches and near misses Bringing her personal passion for throwing in a line author Anna Clark celebrates the enduring pleasure of fishing in The Catch The Story of Fishing in Australia This book charts the history of fishing from the first known accounts of Indigenous fishing and early European encounters with Australia's waters to the latest fishing fads from the introduction of trout and fly fishing to the challenges of balancing needs of commercial and recreational fishers Fishing personality Rob Paxevanos host of Fishing Australia says that The Catch is by far my best fishing read to date

An Historical Perspective of the Commercial and Sport Fisheries Offshore California Through 1985, 1989 Global Solutions for Sustainable Fisheries Pranav Malhotra, 2025-02-20 Global Solutions for Sustainable Fisheries offers a comprehensive look into the complex issue of fisheries management worldwide Authored by leading experts this book serves as a vital resource for anyone concerned about the future of our oceans and the sustainability of seafood production We delve into the urgent need to balance the economic interests of fishing communities with preserving marine ecosystems for future generations addressing challenges like overfishing habitat destruction bycatch and climate change impacts Through case studies and analyses we illustrate how unsustainable fishing practices endanger fish populations and the livelihoods of millions Emphasizing the interconnectedness of local national and global efforts we highlight successful initiatives requiring collaboration among stakeholders governments NGOs fishing communities and consumers We showcase innovative approaches from countries like Norway Iceland the United States and Australia including science based quotas marine protected areas and eco certification schemes Adopting a holistic perspective we consider the biological social economic and cultural dimensions of fishing communities advocating for equity and inclusivity in decision making The book also explores technology and innovation's role in enhancing fisheries sustainability from satellite monitoring to alternative fishing gear With practical recommendations for policymakers industry leaders and consumers we call for stronger regulation enforcement ecosystem based management and consumer awareness campaigns

Weather, Climate, and the Geographical Imagination Martin Mahony, Samuel Randalls, 2020-03-24 As global temperatures rise under the forcing hand of humanity's greenhouse gas emissions new questions are being asked of how societies make sense of their weather of the cultural values which are afforded to climate and of how environmental futures are imagined feared predicted and remade Weather Climate and Geographical Imagination contributes to this conversation by bringing together a range of voices from history of science historical geography and environmental history each speaking to a set of questions about the role of space and place in the production circulation reception and application of knowledges about weather and climate The volume develops the concept of geographical imagination to address the intersecting forces of scientific knowledge cultural politics bodily experience and spatial imaginaries which shape the history of knowledges about climate

A study of shark and ray non-fin commodities in Indonesia Muttaqin, E.,Simeon, B.,Dharmadi, M.I.,Prasetyo, A.P.,Booth, H.,Yulianto, I.,2024-07-16 The work presented here summarizes published research from Indonesia also linked to an FAO summary plus studies from India Indonesia and Peru In collaboration with various country programmes and local research groups the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO examined shark and ray value chains The goal was to provide valuable information for fisheries and environmental agencies shedding light on the role of non fin commodities derived from sharks and rays in fisheries and trade To effectively conserve shark and ray resources we must adopt a more holistic understanding of their fisheries and markets Historically the focus has primarily centred on regulating the export of shark fins often overlooking traditional and emerging fishing practices and markets related to other elasmobranch products such as meat skin cartilage liver oil and gill plates Due to limited examination of non fin commodities we lack clarity on their sources the extent of exploitation and their significance as drivers of elasmobranch utilization This report aims to shift attention towards non fin commodities in shark and ray management By doing so we hope to expand the range of potential interventions that can be employed to achieve sustainable elasmobranch fisheries a critical source of food security nutrition and livelihoods for coastal communities worldwide

Following the Proceeds of Environmental Crime Gregory Rose,2014-06-27 Huge quantities of natural resources are illegally harvested and their proceeds laundered in the Asia Pacific region fostering corruption and undermining environmental governance Most illegal exploitation and pollution occurs in countries with poor governance capacities but much of the sale for profit and money laundering occurs in mature markets with well developed governance capacities Their asymmetrical enforcement capacities can complement each other This book explores ways to combat illegal fishing and logging in Asia Pacific region by the use of cooperative legal measures particularly anti money laundering and confiscation of proceeds techniques Contributors to this volume cover themes including the nature of transnational environmental crime patterns in laundering of illicit fish and forest products networks for distribution of illicit products weaknesses in current systems for assurance of the legality of products and international legal cooperation to enforce anti money laundering laws in relation to illicit products In considering these topics the book explores how the innovative use of anti money laundering measures and the seizure of criminal proceeds can as policy options to combat transnational fishery and forestry crimes The book will be of keen interest to scholars and students of environmental law and criminal law and excellent use for practitioners in natural resources conservation law including state and capital regional identities maritime networking South Asian immigrants Bay of Bengal linkages the East India Company Indian seamen formal and informal collaboration in imperial networking scientific transfers pearling the issues of colonial copyright customs excise and port cities The volume will be useful to scholars and researchers of global history modern history maritime history medieval history Indian history colonial history and world history Coastal Disaster Risk Management in Bangladesh Mahbuba Nasreen,Khondoker Mokaddem Hossain,Mohammed Moniruzzaman Khan,2023-03-31 This book addresses disaster and disaster risk reduction DRR practices constraints and capacity in the context of coastal Bangladesh Located in the lower riparian of the Bay of Bengal Bangladesh has to face frequent disasters such as floods cyclones river erosion salinity intrusion as well as drought Drawing together a range of multidisciplinary perspectives Coastal Disaster Risk Management in Bangladesh explores the connection between climate change and DRR issues in this region The editors reorganize disaster studies around social and physical changes that can reduce these risks and put at risk populations on a stronger footing by making risk reduction the focus These include measures to improve disaster preparedness to boost recovery by creating better disaster planning and programs and physical and social initiatives to improve disaster resilience Also analyzing the gender perspective the volume also utilizes the local knowledge framework to consider whether these populations have resilient knowledge that needs to be incorporated into initiatives based on advanced technology and perspectives This book will be of interest to academics researchers students policymakers and practitioners in the field of disaster DRR and governance climate change climate change adaptation CCA and the environment Natural Hazards and Peoples in the Indian Ocean World Greg Bankoff,Joseph Christensen,2016-07-09 This book examines the dangers and the patterns of adaptation that emerge through exposure to risk on a daily basis By addressing the influence of environmental factors in Indian Ocean World history the collection reaches across the boundaries of the natural and social sciences presenting case studies that deal with a diverse range of natural hazards fire in Madagascar drought in India cyclones and typhoons in Oman Australia and the Philippines climatic variability storms and flood in Vietnam and the Philippines and volcanic eruptions earthquakes and tsunamis in Indonesia These chapters written by leading international historians respond to a growing need to understand the ways in which natural hazards shape social economic and political development of the Indian Ocean World a region of the globe that is highly susceptible to the impacts of seismic activity extreme weather and climate change Asia-Pacific Fishing Livelihoods Michael Fabinyi,Kate Barclay,2021-10-06 This open access book explores fishing livelihoods within their wider contexts Drawing on case studies from across the Asia Pacific region the book highlights how fishing livelihoods are shaped by globalisation social relationships and governance The book concludes by showing how better understanding these relationships can contribute to governance for healthier ecosystems and social wellbeing This is an open access book This is an open access book Climate Change, Small-Scale Fisheries, and Blue Justice Sunil Santha,2023-04-14 This book is a narrative non fiction

based on the patchy epistemologies of traditional small scale fishers in India and the Indian Ocean region It specifically explores the impact of climate change on Fish and Fishers and the mutual entanglements in their eco social world Further it critically examines the nature of climate change adaptation and its implications on small scale fisheries Both climate change impact and adaptation responses are examined from the situated knowledge and everyday lived experiences of Fishers Stories of their everyday struggles from diverse eco social worlds shape these patchy epistemologies Further this book through these stories unearths the transitions in governance and changing relationships between Fish Fishers and the rest of the eco social world Responding ethically to the problems of climate change warming oceans fish scarcity overfishing and pollution requires us to break away from the paradigms that locate Nature and Society as binaries and commodities Blue justice can be achieved only if strategies aimed at adaptation conservation and well being are dialogical inclusive and Fish Fisher centred This book offers insights into the worldviews of Fishers and their stewardship wisdom and experience in healing today s warming world Locating the eco social worlds of Fish and Fishers in alternative worldviews this book strives to find meaningful pathways for just transitions It will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the field of climate change fisheries disaster studies and sustainable livelihoods as well as related subjects of social work and social justice

The Ecological World View Charles Krebs, 2008-01-09 This new textbook fills an important niche by offering a lively overview of the principles of ecology for a broad range of university level science and biology courses Written for those who need to understand key ecological concepts but may specialise in other fields it is filled with many vivid examples of topical issues and current events The Ecological World View briefly covers the history of ecology and describes the general approach of the scientific method then takes a wide ranging look at basic principles of population dynamics and applies them to everyday practical problems Each chapter clearly presents key concepts and learning objectives combined with thought provoking open ended questions to facilitate discussion Stimulating appealing and written in non technical language this is an essential resource for understanding how the ecological world works

The Oxford World History of Empire Peter Fibiger Bang, Christopher Alan Bayly, Walter Scheidel, 2021 This is the first world history of empire reaching from the third millennium BCE to the present By combining synthetic surveys thematic comparative essays and numerous chapters on specific empires its two volumes provide unparalleled coverage of imperialism throughout history and across continents from Asia to Europe and from Africa to the Americas Only a few decades ago empire was believed to be a thing of the past now it is clear that it has been and remains one of the most enduring forms of political organization and power We cannot understand the dynamics and resilience of empire without moving decisively beyond the study of individual cases or particular periods such as the relatively short age of European colonialism The history of empire as these volumes amply demonstrate needs to be drawn on the much broader canvas of global history Volume I The Imperial Experience is dedicated to synthesis and comparison Following a comprehensive theoretical survey and bold world history synthesis fifteen chapters analyze and explore the multifaceted experience of empire across cultures and through the ages The broad range of perspectives includes scale world systems and geopolitics military organization political economy and elite formation monumental display law mapping and registering religion literature the politics of difference resistance energy transfers ecology memories and the decline of empires This broad set of topics is united by the central theme of power examined under four headings systems of power cultures of power disparities of power and memory and decline Taken together these chapters offer a comprehensive and unique view of the imperial experience in world history

Environmental Change and the World's Futures Jonathan Paul Marshall, Linda H. Connor, 2015-08-27 Climate change and ecological instability have the potential to disrupt human societies and their futures Cultural social and ethical life in all societies is directed towards a future that can never be observed and never be directly acted upon and yet is always interacting with us Thinking and acting towards the future involves efforts of imagination that are linked to our sense of being in the world and the ecological pressures we experience The three key ideas of this book ecologies ontologies and mythologies help us understand the ways people in many different societies attempt to predict and shape their futures Each chapter places a different emphasis on the linked domains of environmental change embodied experience myth and fantasy politics technology and intellectual reflection in relation to imagined futures The diverse geographic scope of the chapters includes rural Nepal the islands of the Pacific Ocean Sweden coastal Scotland North America and remote rural and urban Australia This book will appeal to researchers and students in anthropology sociology environmental studies cultural studies psychology and politics

New Advancements in Geomorphological Research Jayanta Das, Somenath Halder, 2024-08-30 There is an affirming transformation basically in the form of core methodology in recent geomorphological studies This book on New Advancement in Geomorphological Research Issues and Challenges in Quantitative Spatial Science asserts the contributing aspects of neo modern developments related to applied geomorphology This includes hydrological research fluvial geomorphology applied glacial geomorphology changes in coastal geomorphology regional to global level disaster and or hazard monitoring with advanced models landslide monitoring geo heritage site suitability and bank and gully erosion detection Contemporary developments in linking with the advanced developments in remote sensing and GIS and with spatial science in applied geomorphology and related sub branches of earth science Recently global climate change phenomena GCCP impacted local to regional climatic events resulting in sea level rise melting of glaciers drastic river course changes the disappearance of the coastal area and shrinkage of natural resources toss significant tests to sustaining human civilization Meanwhile modern monitoring technology and policy help desk can support and minimize the present day s problems globally and also safeguard the natural environment s impending persistence in human society So this academic persuasion is a pioneer in minimizing the complications like river course changes glacier abolishment geo hazard crisis management coastal area erosion management geo heritage conservation and management and so on Side by side this present volume of the book caters a
