History And Narration Looking Back From The Twentieth Century:

History and Narration Marialuisa Bignami, 2011-07-12 The relation between narration and history from the perspective of the twentieth century the century of criticisms suggests a new outlook fit for the new millennium We can no longer look at history and historiography naively but must be aware of the rhetorical strategies that are at work in the writing A research group based in Milan has been working on this topic for a few years discussing authors and texts from different genres and epochs The essays presented here deal with texts chosen because of their intrinsic relevance to the history of English speaking cultures and recent critical perspectives largely but not exclusively indebted to Hayden White Thus the volume considers instances of narrativity and historical discourse in authors as diverse as S Johnson E Chambers C Hill J Raban V Woolf N Mitchison V S Naipaul S Rushdie J M Coetzee A Ghosh

War and Literature: Looking Back on 20th Century Armed Conflicts Tom Burns, Elcio Cornelsen, Volker Jaeckel, Luiz Gustavo Vieira, 2014-06-01 This comprehensive volume analyzes the radical change in the nature of armed conflicts and in the way they are narrated and represented Ever since the First World War has changed war itself rendering meaningless the very vocabulary of war in terms such as battle front non combatant open city and hero new words new approaches new theories and new texts had to be invented The enemy became invisible Submarines tanks mines gas long range artillery and airplanes made this war different from all the other that came before A hundred years after the beginning of this terrible war it is now time to recall different representations of the armed conflicts of the 20th century The articles in this collection analyze representations of the Canudos Civil War in Brazil the First World War the Second World War the Korean War the Vietnam War the colonial wars in Africa and the war in Afghanistan aiming to understand how war and the telling of war have changed during the most murderous hundred years in the history of mankind

The Fourth Pig Naomi Mitchison, 2024-11-01 An enchanting collection that introduces the author and activist Naomi Mitchison to a new generation of readers The Fourth Pig originally published in 1936 is a wide ranging and fascinating collection of fairy tales poems and ballads Droll and sad spirited and apprehensive The Fourth Pig reflects the hopes and forebodings of its era but also resonates with those of today It is a testament to the talents of Naomi Mitchison 1897 1999 who was an irrepressible phenomenon a significant Scottish political activist as well as a prolific author Mitchison s work exemplified by the tales in this superb new edition is stamped with her characteristic sharp wit magical invention and vivid political and social consciousness Mitchison rewrites well known stories such as Hansel and Gretel and The Little Mermaid and she picks up the tune of a ballad with admiring fidelity to form as in Mairi MacLean and the Fairy Man Her experimental approach is encapsulated in the title story which is a dark departure from The Three Little Pigs And in the play Kate Crackernuts the author dramatizes in charms and songs a struggle against the subterranean powers of fairies who abduct humans for their pleasure Marina Warner the celebrated scholar of fairy tales and fiction author provides an insightful introduction that reveals why Mitchison s writing remains significant The Fourth Pig is a literary rediscovery a pleasure that will reawaken interest in a remarkable writer and personality

Virginia Woolf's Unwritten Histories Anne Besnault, 2021-11-04 Virginia Woolf's Unwritten Histories explores the interrelatedness of Woolf's modernism, feminism and her understanding of history as a site of knowledge and a writing practice that enabled her to negotiate her heritage to find her place among the moderns as a female artist and intellectual and to elaborate her poetics of the new not as radical rupture but as the result of a process of unwriting and rewriting traditional historiographical orthodoxies. Its central argument is that unless we comprehend the genealogy of Woolf's historical thought and the complexity of its lineage we cannot fully grasp the innovative thrust of her attempt to think back through our mothers. Bringing together canonical texts such as Orlando 1928, A Room of One's Own 1929, Three Guineas 1938 or Between the Acts 1941 and under-researched ones among which stand Woolf's essays on historians and reviews of history books and her pieces on literary history and nineteenth-century women's literature, this book argues that Woolf's textual conversations with nineteenth-century writers, historians and critics, many of which remain unexplored, are interwoven with her historiographical poesis and constitute the groundwork for her alternative histories and literary histories: unwritten, open-textured, unacademic and polemical counter-narratives that keep track of the past and engage politically with the future.

Literature and Cultural Memory, 2017-03-06 Cultural Memory: a subtle and comprehensive process of identity formation, promotion and transmission is considered as a set of symbolic practices and protocols with particular emphasis on repositories of memory and the institutionalized forms in which they are embodied. High and low culture as texts embedded in the texture of memory as well as material culture as a communal receptacle and reservoir of memory are analysed in their historical contingency. Symbolic representations of accepted and counter-histories and the cultural nodes and mechanisms of the cultural imaginary are also issues of central interest. Twenty-six contributions tackle these topics from a theoretical and historical perspective and bring to the fore case studies illustrating the interdisciplinary agenda that underlies the volume. Contributors: Luis Manuel A V Bernardo, Lina Bolzoni, Peter Burke, Pia Brinzeu, Adina Ciugureanu, Thomas Docherty, Christoph Ehland, Herbert Grabes, László Gyapay, Donna Landry, Christoph Lehner, Gerald MacLean, Drago Manea, Daniel Melo, Mirosława Modrzejewska, Rare Moldovan, C. W. R. D. Mosely, Petru Nădăruș, Francesca Orestano, Maria Lucia Pallares Burke, Andreea Paris, Leonor Santa Barbara, Hans Peter Sander, Jukka Tiusanen, Ludmila Voinea, Ioana Zirra.

The Columbia History of the 20th Century Richard W. Bulliet, 1998 In the parade of highlights with which many have tried to sum up the twentieth century the overarching patterns and fundamental transformations often fail to come into focus The Columbia History of the 20th Century however is much more than a chronicle of the previous century's front page news Instead the book is a series of twenty three linked interpretive essays on the most significant developments in modern times ranging from athletics to art the economy to the environment Rather than presenting a linear narrative each author uncovers patterns of worldwide change James Mayall for example writes on nationalism from the rise of European fascism to the rise of Asian and African nations Sheila Fitzpatrick traces the history of communism and socialism in Moscow and Havana In her chapter on women and gender Rosalind Rosenberg covers the progress of women's rights throughout the world from Middle Eastern activism to the American feminist movement Jean Marc Ran Oppenheim's history of sports traces the spread of Western sports to all corners of the globe and the West's appropriation of such activities as martial arts In each the important strands of history events ideas leading figures issues come together to offer an illuminating look at cultural connection diffusion and conflict showing in stark relief how this period has been unlike any preceding era of human history      Conrad's Presence in Contemporary Culture ,2024-04-30

The anthology consists of essays authored by scholars of different nationalities from diverse cultures nations and primary languages They cover Conrad s presence across multiple media fiction films comics and graphic novels The collection is unique because the contributors focused on Conrad s presence in contemporary culture a constantly changing field rather than well trodden paths The exploration of Polish French Italian Spanish English and American works of art strengthens its originality The artists discussed in connection with Conrad include Olga Tokarczuk Stanis aw Lem Robert Silveberg Loic Godart Christian Bobin Christian Perrissin Tom Tirabosco Eduardo Berti J M Coetzee Michelangelo Antonioni Last but not least the volume contains 20 stunning reproductions in full colour from films graphic novels and comics      Art History, Narratology, and Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Lian Duan,2023-07-28 This study constructs a framework of narratology for art history and rewrites the development of twentieth century Chinese art from a narratological perspective Theoretically and methodologically oriented this is a self reflective meta art history studying the art historical narratives while narrating the story of modern and contemporary Chinese art Thus this book explores the three layers of narrative within the narratological framework the first hand fabula the secondary narration and the tertiary narrativization With this tertiary narrativization the reader author presents three types of narrative the grand narrative of the central thesis of this book the middle range narrative of the chapter theses and case analyses supporting these theses The focus of this tertiary narrativization is the interaction between Western influence on Chinese art and the Chinese response to this influence The central thesis is that this interaction conditioned and shaped the development of Chinese art at every historical turning point in the twentieth century The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history critical theory Chinese studies and cultural studies      History of Everyday Life in Twentieth-Century Scotland Lynn Abrams,2010-02-28 Over the twentieth century Scots lives changed in fast dramatic and culturally significant ways By examining their bodies homes working lives rituals beliefs and consumption this volume exposes how the very substance of everyday life was composed tracing both the intimate and the mass changes that the people endured Using novel perspectives and methods chapters range across the experiences of work art and death the way Scots conceived of themselves and their homes and the way the old Scotland of oppressive community rules broke down from mid century as the country reinvented its everyday life and culture This volume brings together leading cultural historians of twentieth century Scotland to study the apparently mundane activities of people s lives traversing the key spaces where daily experience is composed to expose the controversial personal and national politics that ritual and practice can generate Key features Contains an overview of the material changes experienced by Scots in their everyday lives during the course of the century Focuses on some of the key areas of change in everyday experience from the way Scots spent their Sundays to the homes in which they lived from the work they undertook to the culture they consumed and eventually the way they died Pays particular attention to identity as well as experience      Jewish Comics and

Present Tense Armen Avanessian, Anke Hennig, 2015-09-24 The invention of the present tense novel is a literary event whose importance is on par with the discovery of perspective in painting From the first novels shaped by interior monologues and the use of the present tense in the tradition of modernism the present tense has over the course of its century long evolution changed the conditions of fictional narration along with our conceptions of time in a philosophical and linguistic framework Indeed to understand the work of an increasing number of contemporary writers J M Coetzee Tom McCarthy Thomas Pynchon to name only a few it is necessary to both understand the distinct linguistic and literary qualities of the present tense as well as its historical transformation into a genuine tense of contemporary storytelling For the first time in literary scholarship Present Tense A Poetics offers an account of a profound development in 20th and 21st century fiction

Critical Theory and Social Transformation Gerard Delanty, 2020-02-24 Critical Theory and Social Transformation provides an exploration of the major themes in critical social theory of recent years Delanty argues that a critical theory perspective can offer much needed insights into the pressing socio political challenges of our time In this volume he advances the need to reconnect social theory and social research and to return to the foundational concerns of critical social theory Delanty engages with the key topics facing critical social theorists capitalism cosmopolitanism modernity the Anthropocene and legacies of history The connecting thread is that the topics are all contemporary challenges for critical theory and relate to major social transformations The notions of critique crisis and social transformation are central to the book Critical Theory and Social Transformation will be of interest to the broad readership in social and political theory It will appeal to those working in sociology political sociology politics and international studies and to anyone with an interest in any of the chapter specific topics such as public space memory and neo authoritarianism

Looking Back on the Vietnam War Brenda M. Boyle, Jeehyun Lim, 2016-06-17 More than forty years have passed since the official end of the Vietnam War yet the war's legacies endure Its history and iconography still provide fodder for film and fiction communities of war refugees have spawned a wide Vietnamese diaspora and the United States military remains embroiled in unwinnable wars with eerie echoes of Vietnam Looking Back on the Vietnam War brings together scholars from a broad variety of disciplines who offer fresh insights on the war's psychological economic artistic political and environmental impacts Each essay examines a different facet of the war from its representation in Marvel comic books to the experiences of Vietnamese soldiers exposed to Agent Orange By putting these pieces together the contributors assemble an expansive yet nuanced composite portrait of the war and its global legacies Though they come from diverse scholarly backgrounds ranging from anthropology to film studies the contributors are united in their commitment to original research Whether exploring rare archives or engaging in extensive interviews they voice perspectives that have been excluded from standard historical accounts Looking Back on the Vietnam War thus embarks on an interdisciplinary and international investigation to discover what we remember about the war how we remember it and why

A History of Russian Literature
 Andrew Kahn, Mark Naumovich Lipovetskiĭ, Irina Reyfman, Stephanie Sandler, 2018 Russia possesses one of the richest and most admired literatures of Europe reaching back to the eleventh century A History of Russian Literature provides a comprehensive account of Russian writing from its earliest origins in the monastic works of Kiev up to the present day still rife with the creative experiments of post Soviet literary life The volume proceeds chronologically in five parts extending from Kievan Rus in the 11th century to the present day The coverage strikes a balance between extensive overview and in depth thematic focus Parts are organized thematically in chapters which a number of keywords that are important literary concepts that can serve as connecting motifs and case studies in depth discussions of writers institutions and texts that take the reader up close and Visual material also underscores the interrelation of the word and image at a number of points particularly significant in the medieval period and twentieth century The History addresses major continuities and discontinuities in the history of Russian literature across all periods and in particular bring out trans historical features that contribute to the notion of a national literature The volume's time range has the merit of identifying from the early modern period a vital set of national stereotypes and popular folklore about boundaries space Holy Russia and the charismatic king that offers culturally relevant material to later writers This volume delivers a fresh view on a series of key questions about Russia's literary history by providing new mappings of literary history and a narrative that pursues key concepts rather more than individual authorial careers This holistic narrative underscores the ways in which context and text are densely woven in Russian literature and demonstrates that the most exciting way to understand the canon and the development of tradition is through a discussion of the interrelation of major and minor figures historical events and literary politics literary theory and literary innovation

Narratives of Hurricane Katrina in Context Arin Keeble, 2019-05-29 This book analyzes six key narratives of Hurricane Katrina across literature film and television from the literary fiction of Jesmyn Ward to the cinema of Spike Lee It argues that these texts engage with the human tragedy and political fallout of the Katrina crisis while simultaneously responding to issues that have characterized the wider George W Bush era of American history notably the aftermath of 9 11 and ensuing War on Terror In doing so it recognizes important challenges to trauma studies as an interpretive framework opening up a discussion of the overlaps between traumatic rupture and systemic or slow violence

Explaining Social Processes Jiří Šubrt,Alemayehu Kumsa,Massimiliano Ruzzeddu,2020-08-18 This textbook considers understanding social processes to be the main task of sociology From this perspective its authors demonstrate and explain problems which they consider to be crucial for contemporary social science These are topics of a theoretical and epistemological nature which are nevertheless closely connected with social development and issues arising from it The book moves from the more general theoretical questions and dilemmas raised by key social thinkers such as those connected with the concepts of actor agency institutions structures and systems It then leads to theoretical reflections on long term developmental processes associated with the phenomena of power and life in current societies including globalization identities migration etc It provides a comprehensive approach to the essential questions of sociology Lucidly written and including the latest sociological perspectives this book will find wide appeal among social science students and researchers and is also for the socially aware general reader

National History and New Nationalism in the Twenty-First Century Niels F. May,Thomas Maissen,2021-06-17 National history has once again become a battlefield In internal political conflicts which are fought on the terrain of popular culture museums schoolbooks and memorial politics it has taken on a newly important and contested role Irrespective of national specifics the narratives of new nationalism are quite similar everywhere National history is said to stretch back many centuries expressing the historical continuity of a homogeneous people and its timeless character This people struggles for independence guided by towering leaders and inspired by the sacrifice of martyrs Unlike earlier forms of nationalism the main enemies are no longer neighbouring states but international and supranational institutions To use national history as an integrative tool new nationalists claim that the media and school history curricula should not contest or question the nation and its great historical deeds as doubts threaten to weaken and dishonour the nation This book offers a broad international overview of the rhetoric contents and contexts of the rise of these renewed national historical narratives and of how professional historians have reacted to these phenomena The contributions focus on a wide range of representative nations from around all over the globe
